Hired 4 new interns. Lots of activity on Facebook, Twitter, and Pinterest. Feb. 1st passed buttons out for American Heart Association (women's heart health). Tammy Ward from the cardiac center providing a presentation on heart health (noon Feb 14th) in SSC 104. Encourage students to attend the Feb 16 Women's Basketball game (Pink out). Partnering with Campus Ministry, Feb 19th sharing about the examen and other topics. Half the Sky screening in Rigge 120 (Feb 26th at 6:30 pm). Networking/mentoring lunch during women history month. Let Michaela know if interested in helping with these events (March 6th and 20th lunch hour).
- V. Child Development Center Report—Katie Miller
A couple of toddler openings (turning 2 between October and May). Psychology volunteers just started their work. Month of the young child coming up in April. Love and Logic (positive reinforcement) speaker coming in (48 people) on April 1st, 8 am until noon in Harper 3029. CSW members welcome to attend free of charge. There is a book (Love and Logic) that goes along with the presentation that costs $10.
- VI. WIMS- Roselyn Cerutis
No formal meeting. Having a forum with medical students this month. Trying to get more of the grad students involved as well. Working on a survey to see what dates will work for scheduling and what topics will be relevant. Will be sending save the date reminders for upcoming events.
- VII. Student Report-Student Representative
No report
- VIII. Subcommittees
 - a. Special Events and Projects—Tanya Winegard
Possible change in HHS mandate with contraceptives. Looking at what that means. There is an article in Higher Ed. Will affect the panel decisions. Might need to be put on hold. Will need to get the group together again. Looking to do a social justice series as well. Need to decide what to do for the spring

- b. MLSE Luncheon—Katie Wadas-Thalken
Thursday is the big day. Expecting about 385 people. If you signed up through CSW, you will need to pick your ticket up from the table. We have center pieces would like to keep for next year. Please remind participants they are not for the taking. Thank you to the subcommittee for all of your hard work.
- c. Fall Forum/Summit—Allison Taylor/Michelle Starzyck
No report. We have not heard anything back from Fr. Lannon in response to the report.

IX. Old Business
No Old business

X. New Business

- a. Dr. Bernice Sandler visit—Luz Colon-Rodriguez
Helped found Title IX. Ery involved in March 4th, 7 pm (Hixson Lied Auditorium in Harper) You have come a long way baby, but not far enough, and will be having dinner with women from campus. Collaborative program from many groups around campus. Will have a workshop on March 4th for the University as well. Sharing with her the fall forum report and the best employer to work for report to give her a feeling for the campus climate. Tanya working with group to put together a group to meet with Dr. Sandler. The sessions should be different from the evening (student focused) to morning (more professional development). Encourage the CSW committee to attend as much as possible.
