Things We Will Do
This week the preschoolers will be observing the changes in the environment as fall appears! We will be having fun with art by making leaf rubbings, decorating pinecones, and making a pumpkin patch mural. We will go outside and collect items that represent fall and put them in our science area and sensory table for exploration. We will also use all of our senses when we dissect a pumpkin and taste apples! It will be a lot of fun!
