Memo:

On Wednesday, December, 17th from 4:30 until 5:15 we are inviting parents to join us in the classroom for our Celebration of Lights. Tables will be set up with craft activities that parents can do with their child. Snacks will be served in the kitchen.

This week we have planned process art lessons that have surprising results. We are also introducing new Math and Alphabet stations. In the afternoon we will play basketball and number toss games. On Friday children may wear their pajamas to school. They still need to wear shoes and socks. It should be a fun filled week!

Thanks,
