"A long time ago, there were dinosaurs!" Dinosaurs with horns, and dinosaurs with spikes, and dinosaurs with clubs on their tails. This is the beginning of a story we will be reading, as we explore the world of dinosaurs. It will prove to be a fun week, as we pretend to be archaeologists, and dig for dinosaur bones.

Books we will read:
- Dinosaur, Dinosaur
- Danny and the Dinosaur
- How Do Dinosaurs Say Goodnight
- How Do Dinosaurs Eat Their Food
- Saturday Night At the Dinosaur
- Stomp

Songs and Finger Plays
- One little, two little dinosaurs
- Dino Hide and Seek
- The Dino Dance
- Five Enormous Dinosaurs

*Memo to Parents

We would all like to thank you for the lovely flowers that you brought for us last week. They were a bright spot in the week, and were much appreciated.

Thanks,
Du Rell, Laura, Corey, and Erin
