Hey diddle diddle the cat and the fiddle sounds rather silly when you think about the words. But the rhyming and rhythm help children learn verbal and literacy skills that they will use as they progress through reading and writing in preschool and beyond.

This week we will learn several well known rhymes and few that may be new to the toddlers.

Books we will read:
- Nursery Rhymes (book & CD)
- Nursery Rhymes - Beatrix Potter
- Hey Diddle Diddle
- The Big Mother Goose Book

Songs and Finger Plays
- Hey Diddle Diddle
- Twinkle Twinkle Little Star
- Mary Mary Quite Contrary
- Hickory Dickory Dock

*Memo to Parents

If the university closes due to weather the Center will also close. If this happens during the day be sure to check your e-mails, voicemail, and weather updates

Thanks,

Du Rell, Laura, Corey, and Erin