

Campus Security Report

Campus Safety and Security

In November of 1990 federal legislation was enacted requiring virtually all postsecondary institutions to publish a formal security report delineating specific campus crime statistics, policies and procedures. The intent of the Campus Security or Clery Act is to help make college campuses safer through the disclosure of such information, and to assist applicants in making enrollment or employment decisions based upon that criteria.

At Creighton University the safety and well-being of our students, staff and faculty are always primary considerations. We realize that college campuses are not isolated from criminal activity, and we recognize the need to share that information with all members of the campus community. Indeed, our best hopes for achieving a truly safe campus environment hinge on the collaborative efforts of an enlightened community. Please read this material carefully and use the information to help maintain a secure environment for yourself and others on campus.

▼ General Information

Creighton University is a small, coeducational, independent college operated by the Jesuits. With a student enrollment of 7,385 taught by a full-time faculty of 667, and part-time faculty of 804, Creighton is unusually diverse in its curriculum and degree programs.

The campus is comprised of 74 buildings situated on approximately 132 acres along the northwest edge of downtown Omaha, Nebraska. The University's campus is near, yet set apart from, the city's urban center. The Omaha metro area is a midwestern community with a population of approximately 775,000.

▼ The Department of Public Safety

The Department of Public Safety, which reports to the Office of the Vice President for Administration and Finance, is responsible for campus safety and security at Creighton. The department operates 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Its headquarters is located at 2204 Burt Street. Public Safety is a private security force with 19 uniformed, armed personnel who receive a variety of specialized training that includes first-aid, CPR and the use of firearms. Total full-time staff consists of the director, three supervisors, a crime prevention officer, 15 patrol officers, three full-time dispatchers, three part-time dispatchers, an administrative assistant and clerical support. The department is service-oriented and maintains a close working relationship with municipal, state and federal law enforcement agencies.

▼ Crime Prevention

Public Safety maintains that the more effective strategy is to prevent rather than solve crimes. To that end, the department devotes a significant portion of its resources to crime prevention:

► Officers patrol the campus on foot, on bicycles and in vehicles 24 hours a day. Always on the alert for potential problems, officers provide a first line of defense with an intercept capability and a visible deterrence.

► A campus shuttle service provides students and University employees with safe and convenient transportation to most sites on campus up to 18 hours a day. Two buses, the east shuttle and the west shuttle, run concurrently to link all corners of the campus with most destinations in between. A third bus shuttles employees between Creighton University Medical Center and the 30th Street parking lot.

Another shuttle provides service to commuters parking along the Burt Street Corridor. Shuttle bus drivers provide extra “eyes and ears” while they are on their routes, reporting suspicious activity to Public Safety.

► A pedestrian escort service is available to all campus members upon request. Public Safety officers or student employees will accompany pedestrians to their residence halls, parked cars, or other campus destinations. Department personnel respond to escort requests any time someone is apprehensive about walking alone.

► Blue light emergency phones are located strategically throughout the campus, particularly in parking lots. They enable one to activate a single emergency button on the phone panel to be in instant contact with the Public Safety dispatcher. The dispatcher simultaneously receives a signal indicating the location of the caller. Many of these phones also feature a standard keypad that allows them to be used for routine campus phone calls.

► Given the relatively open environment that characterizes college campuses today, everyone must become actively involved in the security process.

To support this, a full-time Crime Prevention Officer makes presentations and develops programs designed to inform campus members about the threat of crime and the prevention resources available to them. These efforts are intended to encourage students and employees to think and act in terms of crime prevention and assume an appropriate degree of responsibility for personal safety and the security of property.

► These educational efforts include new student and employee orientation programs, crime prevention presentations, property identification programs, RAD Training, bike security programs, along with pamphlets, brochures, posters or other support materials. Programs and presentations are scheduled annually, and are also available upon request.

► Student Services’ Peer Education Office is a resource center for students. The department uses awareness teams to provide students with guidance, information and training on relationships, mental health, alcohol, drugs, sexual assault and body image. Presentations are scheduled upon request.

► Electronic card access systems are employed in a number of buildings on campus: the Administration, Humanities, Communication Arts and Lied Center Buildings, the Law School, Eppley, Rigge, Hixson-Lied, Alumni Library, Boyne Building, Criss II and III, the Cardiac Center, Harper Center, the Old Gym, the Ryan Athletic Center, and the Center for Health Policy and Ethics. Kenefick, Heider, McGloin, Davis Square, Opus Square, Deglman, Swanson, Kiewit and Gallagher Residence Halls and the 20th and 24th Street parking garages also utilize card access. These electronic access systems afford an extra measure of security in their flexibility and control.

► Maintenance and security of campus facilities are top priorities. The Maintenance staff attends to University buildings and grounds with a concern for safety and security. Shrubbery, trees and other vegetation on campus are trimmed on a routine basis. Upon the discovery of irregular conditions such as broken windows, faulty locks, burned out lights or other hazards, Public Safety officers, Student Services staff or any other members of the University may notify the Maintenance Department. The staff responds promptly to make repairs affecting safety and security.

▶ A number of closed-circuit television surveillance cameras have been installed at selected sites on campus to record activity in these areas and serve as visible deterrents to crime.

▶ CUAlert is the University's multi-modal emergency notification system which allows Public Safety to contact faculty, staff and students with time-sensitive information during a crisis or emergency situation using voice, email and text messaging. More detailed information is available, and you may enroll in the system, at www.creighton.edu/cualert.

▶ Crime alerts are made to the campus community when serious crimes occur that are considered to pose a continuous threat to the welfare of the student or employee population. When conditions warrant, information may be disseminated through flyers, bulletin board postings, personal notification, announcements in the "Creighton Today," or campus-wide e-mail. Information that would warrant a timely warning to the community can be reported to Public Safety officers, supervisors, or the director at x2104, 24 hours a day.

▼ Residential Facilities and Policies

At Creighton University, the Student Services Division houses approximately 2,500 students in nine residence halls: Deglman, Swanson, Kiewit, Gallagher, Heider, McGloin, Opus Square, Davis Square and Kenefick Hall. One of the residence halls, Deglman, is reserved exclusively for women students, while all others are coed. The Student Services Division makes available a wide variety of programs and services to enhance the quality of campus life and promote safe and secure on-campus accommodations.

Residence halls are staffed by professional, live-in Resident Directors (RD's). Each facility is also served by a number of live-in Resident Advisors (RA's). At least one professional staff member is on duty at all times, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The President of the University resides in one of the residence halls, and each hall except Opus and Davis is served by a live-in Jesuit Chaplain.

Individual security measures for the nine residence halls differ slightly, but most utilize RA's or trained desk workers at the main entrance to monitor access and provide assistance 24 hours per day. All residence halls utilize electronic card access systems. Residence hall rooms are keyed with a high security lock system using keys that cannot be easily duplicated. Tight key control procedures enhance the integrity of this system.

For additional, detailed information on visitation and other residential policies, please refer to the Residence Life Handbook.

▼ Drug and Alcohol Policies

In compliance with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989, the University publishes and distributes a copy of University policy along with federal, state and local laws that regulate the possession, use and sale of alcohol and drugs. This information is mailed out to every registered student and to all employees annually.

▼ Weapons Possession

The possession or use of firearms, fireworks, explosives or any lethal weapon on campus is strictly forbidden and subject to University discipline as well as criminal sanctions. Public Safety maintains a locker for the safe storage of hunting equipment and firearms.

▼ To Report a Crime

A crime can be reported by contacting Public Safety at extension 2911 (emergencies) or extension 2104 (non-emergencies).

Many campus phones have decals affixed with the Public Safety phone numbers already on them. The Public Safety phone numbers are also listed in all campus directories, and the emergency phones on campus use an autodialer to reach the Public Safety office. Campus Emergency Procedure Notices with appropriate phone numbers and emergency instructions have been distributed throughout the University and are available upon request.

Victims are encouraged to report all incidents to Public Safety regardless of how insignificant the crime might be. Officers respond quickly any time of the day or night to meet the victim, take a report, investigate the incident and provide assistance. The municipal police will typically be contacted for crimes of a more serious nature. A significant network of University and external support services is available to all victims.

Although there is no formal policy governing the anonymous reporting of crimes for inclusion in the annual disclosure of campus crime statistics, every effort will be made to protect the confidentiality of victims and witnesses should they so desire. Similarly, there is no formal policy for pastoral or professional counselors to inform the people they are counseling of the existence of such procedures.

Property Definitions

On Campus Property

- (1) Any building or property owned or controlled by an institution within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area and used by the institution in direct support of, or in a manner related to, the institution's educational purposes, including residence halls; and
- (2) Any building or property that is within or reasonably contiguous to the area identified in paragraph (1) of this definition, that is owned by the institution but controlled by another person, is frequently used by students, and supports institutional purposes (such as a food or other retail vendor).

Non-Campus Property

- (1) Any building or property owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by the institution; or
- (2) Any building or property owned or controlled by an institution that is used in direct support of, or in relation to, the institution's educational purposes, is frequently used by students, and is not within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution.

Public Property

All public property, including thoroughfares, streets, sidewalks, and parking facilities, that is within the campus, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus.

► Campus Arrests

The table below lists the number of arrests over the past three years for three categories of Part II Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Offenses. The twelve-month reporting periods begin January 1 and end December 31.

► Campus Disciplinary Referrals

The following table lists the number of disciplinary referrals over the past three years for three categories of Part II Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Offenses. Campus disciplinary actions are defined as any student referred to any campus official who initiates a disciplinary action of which a record is kept and which may result in the imposition of a sanction. The twelve-month periods begin January 1 and end December 31.

*2008 liquor law violations do not include judicial referrals for drunkenness or alcohol consumption.

▼ Off-Campus Facilities

The University owns or controls a number of properties, buildings and classrooms remote from the main campus in support of its educational mission. The School of Nursing operates a distance learning program with “satellite” classrooms at Mary Lanning Hospital in Hastings. The School of Pharmacy and Health Professions also operates a Distance Web Assisted Doctoral Program for 330 Physical Therapy, Occupational Therapy and Pharmacy students. Other facilities include the Creighton Retreat Center in Griswold, Iowa, and a number of medical clinics scattered throughout the City of Omaha. The Public Safety Department does not patrol or provide any direct services to these “off-campus” facilities or monitor the criminal activity that occurs there. Crimes occurring at these locations should be reported to the appropriate municipal or county police agencies.

Such is the case with sorority and fraternity houses, which are all located off campus. The University does not own or operate, and Public Safety does not provide direct security services for these properties, receive crime reports, or maintain statistics on any criminal activity that occurs there. This information is typically maintained at the municipal law enforcement level, but will be included in the campus statistical report when available.

Contiguous to the main campus is the Creighton University Medical Center. Approximately 350 University personnel work in this facility which provides its own proprietary security. The Public Safety Department does not provide routine security services at this site, receive crime reports, or maintain statistics of criminal activity that occurs there. Information on hospital crime statistics and security practices can be obtained by contacting Creighton University Medical Center Security at 449-4090.

▼ Campus Crime Classification

The crime tables list the number of crimes reported over the past three years to the Department of Public Safety and other campus authorities for eight categories of Part I offenses (the more serious crimes). Crimes are classified according to the Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) format with the exception of sex offenses which are classified according to the National Incident Based Reporting System (NIBRS). Property categories are defined below the table. The twelve-month reporting periods begin January 1 and end December 31. Crime statistics were solicited from the Omaha Police Department but it was unable to provide a statistical breakdown appropriate for Clery Act reporting.

CREIGHTON UNIVERSITY

SEXUAL ASSAULT AND AWARENESS POLICY

Creighton University will not tolerate any type of sexual assault. Sexual assaults are considered to be among the most serious violations of its Code of Conduct. When there is reasonable cause to suspect a violation of University policy in regard to sexual assaults, the University will investigate and under-take disciplinary action against the perpetrator(s) following the initiation of a complaint by the person assaulted.

Sexual assault is defined as a forced or non-consenting sexual act. In this definition, sexual acts are defined as sexual intercourse, sodomy (anal intercourse and oral copulation), penetration of the genital or anal openings by a foreign object (including a finger), and the touching of the intimate parts of another person, such as sexual organ, breast or buttocks.

Persons who have been assaulted are strongly encouraged to report incidents immediately. Most experts agree that reports should be made within 48 hours of a sexual assault. If a person who has been assaulted chooses to report the incident, it is extremely important to preserve all types of evidence so a proper investigation can be conducted. This includes refraining from cleansing of the body in any way or changing clothes. The preservation of all types of evidence is crucial as local authorities will determine whether sufficient evidence exists to proceed with criminal prosecution. Assaults can be reported by contacting the Department of Public Safety (280-2911 or 280- 2104), the Assistant Vice President for Student Services (280-2775), the Omaha Police Department (911) or the Omaha Police Sexual Assault Unit (444-5657).

Because of the seriousness of these offenses, the full range of University sanctions, including expulsion and employment termination, may be imposed. Further, it should be clearly understood that University action against violators of this policy in no way precludes the possibility of criminal action by civil authorities should the victim wish to pursue this course of action. Be that the case, University officials will assist the person assaulted in notifying the proper authorities.

In the event of University disciplinary proceedings, the accused and the accuser have the following opportunities:

- ▶ Both parties are entitled to the assistance of an advisor within the University community during all disciplinary proceedings.
- ▶ Both parties are entitled to knowledge of the University's final determination and the sanctions imposed on the accused.

Several educational programs promoting the awareness and prevention of different types of sexual assaults are available to students of Creighton University. These programs stress the importance of preventive techniques and are sponsored by the Department of Public Safety, Student Health, Counseling and Psychological Services, and the YWCA's Women Against Violence Program.

If a victim so desires, assistance can be provided to change the victim's living and academic arrangements if such changes are reasonably available. Questions concerning such a change should be directed to the Assistant Vice President for Student Services (280-2775). Persons who have been sexually assaulted will also be directed to and encouraged to seek appropriate support services available on the Creighton Campus and in the Omaha community.

▼ Harassment and Discrimination

Information on sexual harassment and access to copies of the University's policy and procedures on harassment and discrimination are available through websites such as: www.creighton.edu/President/PresOfc/GuideToPolicies/Guide or you may contact a Human Resources representative. In addition, a copy of the "Guide to Policies of Creighton University" is available for viewing at each University library location.
