8. Ignatian Scholarship Resume

Our admission application serves as both your application for admission and scholarship. In order to be considered for our Ignatian Scholarship, a resume listing your extracurricular, community service, leadership activities, and employment both in and out of school is required. If you have not already submitted a resume as part of the Common Application, please provide one. This is your opportunity to distinguish yourself and provide our committee with information about your service and leadership involvement. There is no limit on number of pages you may submit. We encourage you to be thorough.

Please include the following information on your resume:

- Whether your work was volunteer or paid.
- Whether your sport was varsity or not.
- What musical instrument you played.
- Years you participated in the activity.
- Hours per week/weeks per year you participated in the activity.
- Detailed information about leadership positions you have held.
- Any information you feel will help us get to know you better.

I have decided not to provide a list/resume of my activities. I understand that by not providing this resume, I will not be considered for the Ignatius of Loyola Scholarship. The resume included within the Common Application will not be used for the Ignatius of Loyola Scholarship.

This supplemental application and all required application materials must be submitted and received in the Admissions Office by January 6, 2012 to receive priority consideration for scholarships. Applications submitted after this time will be considered as funds are available.

NOTE: In order to be considered for supplemental scholarships, students using the Common Application must log into the Creighton Application for Admission and Scholarship to complete the appropriate Supplemental Scholarship Application. It is not necessary to complete the Application for Admission. You may access the Application for Admission and Scholarship at admissions.creighton.edu/Scholarships.
