

All Things Ignatian

MAGISI PRODUCTIONS

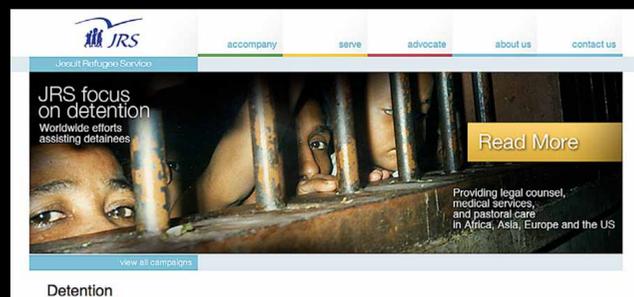

Supporting International Jesuit Refugee Web Development

Every Wednesday morning for eight months, Brian Scholl, Adventure Studio designer, met with Seamus Stapleton, JRS Rome, Christian Fuchs, JRS USA, Angelika Mendes, JRS East Africa, and Don Doll S.J. via SKYPE international conferencing to plan the new multi-lingual, multi-faceted JRS web design.

In May, 2010, Don Doll, SJ, joined Brian Scholl, to demonstrate the new JRS Content Management System to Peter Balleis, S.J., international director, at the JRS regional directors meeting in Rome.

JRS programs are found in 51 countries, providing assistance to refugees in camps and cities, individuals displaced within their own countries, asylum seekers in cities, and to those held in detention centers. The areas of work are in the field of education, emergency assistance, healthcare, livelihood activities and social services. In recent years, more than 500,000 individuals were directly assisted by JRS projects.

PLEASE VISIT <http://www.internationaljrs/ior>

Creighton graduates, Molly Mullen, former editor of the Creightonian, and Sophie Vodvarka, editor, are the first JRS International interns to serve abroad through the support of Magis Productions and Creighton's Vision Quest Endowment Fund. Molly and Sophie trained in ROME at JRS before leaving for Bangkok and Nairobi.

Molly Mullen

Sophie Vodvarka