

All Things Ignatian

The Collaborative Ministry Office

All our service at Creighton is MINISTRY.
And when we do it with a shared vision, it's COLLABORATIVE.

New Employee Orientation:

Help new members of the Creighton community understand and contribute to the Creighton Mission.

Faculty Conversations:

Each year 5 to 6 Creighton faculty attend a Heartland-Delta Faculty Conversation weekend. They return and share what they learned at a luncheon with colleagues.

Annual Ignatian Speaker:

A speaker is brought to campus each year to open up another aspect of the Ignatian roots of our Mission.

Lenten Reading Groups:

A book is read by two groups of faculty and staff during Lent, related to the Mission and the season.

Online Retreat Groups:

Three or four groups of faculty and staff make the Online Retreat together each year, from September through May.

Ignatian Colleagues Program:

Each year, two leaders on campus are invited to participate in this 18 month program which involves academic formation, national group interaction, an Ignatian retreat and a third world immersion.

Spirituality Plus Luncheons:

Offering spiritual enrichment and conversation to faculty and staff throughout the year.

Heartland-Delta Conference:

Every three or four years 30 to 40 Creighton staff and faculty participate in this conference and bring back many ideas for the whole community.

Sponsored by the Creighton University Jesuit Community, in association with the Deglman Center for Ignatian Spirituality.
