THE OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS (OIP) Invites you to celebrate

International Education Week
November 16-20, 2009

International Education Week is a joint initiative of the U.S. Departments of State and Education to promote global understanding through international education and exchange. To highlight the importance of international education at Creighton University, the Office of International Programs and other departments are sponsoring special events. All Creighton students, faculty, and staff are cordially invited to attend various campus events that celebrate international education during the week of November 16.

Monday-Friday, November 16-20

During International Education Week, Sodexho will bring a “Taste of the World” to Wareham Court, Brandeis and Becker Dining Halls. Enjoy some of our students’ favorite foods from various regions of the world throughout the week! Wareham Court (Skutt Student Center) will feature:

Monday:   Chicken Tikka (India)
   Chicken, lemon, garlic, ginger, coriander, spices, yogurt. Skewered and basted with a spiced yogurt marinade.

Tuesday:  Bamboo Shoots with Shrimp and Pork (Vietnam)
   Shrimp, pork, bamboo shrimps, garlic, sesame seeds and mint cooked in a fish sauce and served with chips.

Wednesday: Chicken with Feta and Green Olives (Greece)
   Stewed chicken breast in tomatoes, onions olives, vinegar and topped with feta cheese.

Thursday: Lamb and Vegetable Tajine (Morocco)
   Lamb cooked with onion, garlic, pepper, paprika, saffron, ginger and carrots, potatoes, turnips, and green peppers.

Friday:   Seco de Chivo (Ecuador)
   Stewed lamb with onion, garlic, tomatoes, chili’s & raspberry juice

Monday, November 16

11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.:   INTERNATIONAL FAIR   (Skutt Student Center Ballroom)

Do you know where our international students come from and where Creighton students study abroad? This will be your opportunity to meet Creighton’s international students and our study abroad ambassadors. Students will display information about their country of origin and destination countries with posters and artifacts. You will enjoy sweets from various countries! Co-Sponsors: OIP and the International Student Association.

9:15 p.m.:   ENCUENTRO DOMINICANO INFO SESSION   (Skutt Student Center, Room 104)

Past participants of Creighton’s service-learning program in the Dominican Republic will share their experiences and answer questions about the program.
Tuesday, November 17

11:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m.: INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION (ISA) FUNDRAISER
(Skutt Student Center, Fireplace Lounge)

Cookies, brownies, pumpkin bread and t-shirts will be sold as part of a fundraiser for the Annual International Banquet on February 13, 2010.

12:00-2:30 p.m.: ASIAN TEA APPRECIATION  (Asian World Center, Lower Becker)

Dr. Maorong Jiang and Mr. Andrew Trapp of the Asian World Center invite you to taste various teas from Asia while learning more about Asian tea culture. Information on tea and health, tea and diet, tea and weight loss, and complimentary tea bags will be available. Sponsored by the Asian World Center, this event will be repeated on Thursday, November 19.

2:30-5:00 p.m.: HAPPY BIRTHDAY, IELI!   (Harper Center, Suite 4036)

Creighton’s Intensive English Language Institute (IELI) is celebrating its 30th Anniversary with cake, punch and music! Meet the current IELI students who, like hundreds of their predecessors since 1979, have come to Creighton to study English and to pursue a degree.

6:00-7:00 p.m.: STUDY ABROAD PAST PARTICIPANT PANEL   (Harper Center, Room 3048)

Have you ever wondered what it's really like to study abroad? Creighton students who have recently studied abroad will tell their stories and answer questions about their experiences overseas, how to research program options, when to start the application process, and why studying abroad is possible for any major. Come and find out how study abroad has impacted the lives of these students.

Wednesday, November 18

6:00-7:30 p.m.: INTERNATIONAL POTLUCK DINNER  (Lower St. John’s)

The Multinational Ambassador Program (MAP), a program sponsored by the Office of International Programs, will host a potluck dinner. Everyone is welcome to attend! Just RSVP at 280-2221 and bring a dish to share! The MAP pairs international students with American students to promote cross-cultural friendships.

Thursday, November 19

12:00-2:30 p.m.: ASIAN TEA APPRECIATION  (Asian World Center, Lower Becker)

Dr. Maorong Jiang and Mr. Andrew Trapp of the Asian World Center invite you to taste various teas from Asia. Information on tea and health, tea and diet, tea and weight loss, and complimentary tea bags will be available. At 1:00 p.m., Mr. Trapp will share his teaching and life experience as an English teacher in China after graduating from Creighton in 2007. Sponsored by the Asian World Center.

6:00-8:00 p.m.: LATIN DANCING LESSONS   (Harper Center Ballroom)

Join us for a night of Latin dancing! Professional instructors from Omaha Ballroom will teach salsa, merengue, rumba, and cha-cha! No previous experience or partner is required. Everyone is welcome to come and dance the night away!