

Creighton's Fourth Annual Non-Western Culture Week

April 7 to 11, 2008

Featuring

STAY CONNECTED: ETHICS AND BUSINESS IN ASIA

Sponsored by Creighton Non-Western Committee,
College of Arts and Sciences and College of Business Administration,
the Asian World Center Presents

Schedule

Week-Long Display of Books on Ethics

Time: Daily 1:30 to 3:00 pm, April 7 to 11, 2008

Location: Room L21 of the Reinert-Alumni Memorial Library

Monday, 4:30 to 5:30 pm, April 7, 2008

Public talk: "Getting Connected, Staying Connected, Philosophy in Community: The Ultimate 'Wireless' Connection"

by Dr. Thomas Jackson, Professor of Philosophy at University of Hawaii

Location: Room L02 of the Reinert-Alumni Memorial Library

Tuesday, 1:30 to 2:30 pm, April 8, 2008

Educational Seminar on Business Ethics and Asian Economic Development "Books on Ethics---An Introduction" by Mr. Nathan Morgan, Reinert-Memorial Alumni Library

Location: Union Pacific Room of the Reinert-Alumni Memorial Library

Wednesday, 2:30 to 4:00 pm, April 9, 2008

Panel Discussion: "Doing Business in Asia"

Panelists: Dr. Bruce Aronson, Creighton Law School; Mr. Craig Stoffel, Werner Enterprises and Ms. Ann Kennedy, InfoUSA

Moderator: Dr. Leida Chen, Professor of Information Systems & Technology, CoBA

Location: Union Pacific Room of the Reinert-Alumni Memorial Library

Thursday, April 10, 2008 (Two Events)

1. Ethical Inquiry into Chinese Recipes: A Casual Talk with Live Cooking Show by Dr. Maorong Jiang, Director of Asian World Center

Time: 12:00 to 1:00 pm

Location: Brandeis Dining Hall

2. Asian Ethics Forum: The Tibetan Issue----All Views Considered; Remarks by Dr. Jinmei Yuan of Philosophy

Time: 3:30 to 4:30 pm

Location: Union Pacific Room of the Reinert-Alumni Memorial Library

Friday, 3:30 to 4:30 pm, April 11, 2008

Public Forum: Connect China's Fast Developing Economy with Ethical Inquiries

Keynote Presentation: "China's Thirsty for Energy and Environmental Crisis---An Ethical Look at the Three Gorge Dam"

Speakers: Drs. Sihong Liu and Dahuai Yu (Hohai - River and Sea - University in China)

Reception: 4:30 to 5:30 pm

Location: Union Pacific Room of the Reinert-Alumni Memorial Library