

30th Annual Symposium on Jewish Civilization

October 29-30, 2017

Presenters

Dror Abend-David

University of Florida

“The Ghetto from Within: Shylock, Sobol and the Vilna Ghetto”

Stephen Hazan Arnoff

Fuchsberg Jerusalem Center

“Going Home Without My Sorrow: Exile, Longing, and Return in the Work and Vision of Leonard Cohen”

Paula Eisenstein Baker

University of St. Thomas, Houston

"The Folksong: Its Exiles and Its Return"

Judah Bernstein

New York University

“The ‘Completeness’ Deficiency: American Zionists and the Problems of Exile”

Samuel L. Boyd
University of Colorado, Boulder

“Place as Real and Imagined in Exile: Jerusalem at the Center of Ezekiel”

Dereck Daschke
Truman State University

“‘How Deserted Lies the City’: Politics and the Trauma of Homelessness in the Hebrew Bible”

Jean-Philippe Delorme
University of Toronto

“‘I Was Among the Exiles by the River Chebar’ (Ezek 1:1)”

Joseph Hodes
Texas Tech University

“The Bene Israel and the Predicament of Homecoming”

Philip Hollander
University of Wisconsin, Madison

“Against the Sabra Current: Hanokh Bartov’s Shesh kenafayim le-echad and the Embrace of Diasporic Vitality”

Brian Horowitz

Tulane University

“‘If I Forget Thee...’: Jerusalem In the Thought of (Some) Zionists”

Mordechai Inbari

University of North Carolina at Pembroke

“Religious Zionism and the Temple Mount Dilemma”

Daniel Lasker

Ben Gurion University of the Negev

“Karaites and Jerusalem: From Anan Ben David to the Karaite Visitors’ Center in the Old City”

Menachem Mor

University of Haifa

“Exile and Return in the Samaritan Traditions”

Haim Sperber

Western Galilee College

“Is Zionism a Movement of Return?”