

SPN 428

Encuentro Hispano: Ecuador

May 11th to June 4th 2008

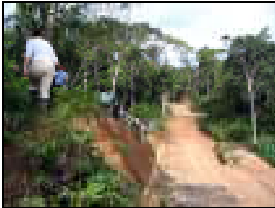

Contact: Prof. J. McClanahan, 280-3868, jose@creighton.edu

Informational Meetings: Oct 8th and 10th from 5:30-6:30 HC13

Interviews in early November

Course topics may include:

- 🌐 Cultural and ethnic diversity in Ecuador: the indigenous, Afro-Ecuadorian and mestizo communities
- 🌐 Family and kinship patterns in urban and rural Ecuador
- 🌐 Male and female roles in Ecuadorian society
- 🌐 Education, work, and leisure activities in urban and rural Ecuador
- 🌐 Role of history in understanding contemporary society
- 🌐 Contemporary economic and political challenges

Would you consider...

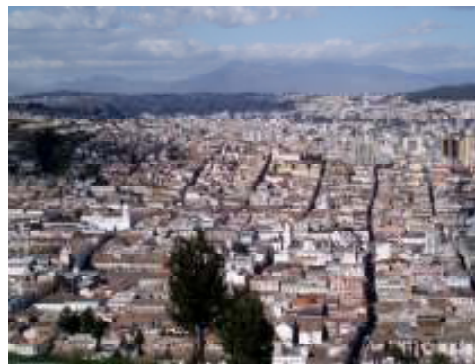

Studying culture, history, and language of Latin America at 9405 feet above sea level?

Learning about the impact of industry and tourism in the Amazon while hiking through the jungle?

Discovering the lasting contributions of indigenous peoples in Latin America today?

If you answer YES, then...

COME EXPLORE ECUADOR!

Quito, Ecuador

Volcán Quilotoa