

Department of Philosophy Creighton University

Philosophy Major Programs

The Creighton University Department of Philosophy is committed to teaching and scholarship in both the history and problems of philosophy: students must be educated in both in order to grasp the traditions and complexities of their world. Students may complete the B. A., Major in Philosophy, program with or without a specialization in ethics. Students can apply for admission to the Philosophy Major or the Philosophy Major with Specialization in Ethics at the following address:
<https://people.creighton.edu/~bjk79676/majorApp.php>.

B. A., Major in Philosophy (36 credits)

ALL of the following philosophy courses:

PHL 107 Critical & Historical Introduction to Philosophy
PHL 250 Philosophical Foundations for Ethical Understanding
PHL 320 God and Persons: Philosophical Reflections
PHL 492 Senior Seminar for Majors

ONE of the following logic courses:

PHL 201 Introduction to Logic
PHL 312 Symbolic Logic

TWO of the following history of philosophy courses:

PHL 351 Introduction to Chinese Philosophy
PHL 367 American Philosophy
PHL 370 History of Classical Greek Philosophy
PHL 372 History of Medieval Philosophy
PHL 373 History of Modern Philosophy
PHL 374 History of 19th-Century Philosophy

TWO of the following problems of philosophy courses:

PHL 321 Epistemology
PHL 331 Moral Philosophy
PHL 334 Philosophy of the Natural Sciences
PHL 342 Metaphysics
PHL 358 Social and Political Philosophy
PHL 422 Aesthetics

9 additional hours of PHL courses numbered 300 or above, no more than 3 hours of which may be cross-listed as SRP.

B. A., Major in Philosophy with Specialization in Ethics (36 credits)

ALL of the following philosophy courses:

PHL 107 Critical & Historical Introduction to Philosophy
PHL 250 Philosophical Foundations for Ethical Understanding
PHL 320 God and Persons: Philosophical Reflections
PHL 331 Moral Philosophy
PHL 492 Senior Seminar for Majors

ONE of the following logic courses:

PHL 201 Introduction to Logic
PHL 312 Symbolic Logic

TWO of the following history of philosophy courses:

PHL 351 Introduction to Chinese Philosophy
PHL 367 American Philosophy
PHL 370 History of Classical Greek Philosophy
PHL 372 History of Medieval Philosophy
PHL 373 History of Modern Philosophy
PHL 374 History of 19th-Century Philosophy

ONE of the following problems of philosophy courses:

PHL 321 Epistemology
PHL 334 Philosophy of the Natural Sciences
PHL 342 Metaphysics
PHL 358 Social and Political Philosophy
PHL 422 Aesthetics

THREE of the following ethics courses:

PHL 317 Philosophy of Sport
PHL 332 World Philosophy
PHL 343 Ethics and the Professions
PHL 348 Philosophy of Feminism
PHL 354 Environmental Ethics
PHL 355 Science, Technology, and Values
PHL 356 Philosophy of Peace and War
PHL 358 Social and Political Philosophy
PHL 359 History of Ethics
PHL 360 History of Medieval Ethics
PHL 365 Classics of Political Thought
PHL 368 Moral Psychology
PHL 435 Literature, Philosophy, and Economics
PHL 440 Legal Philosophy
PHL 453 Ethics and Public Policy
PHL 455 Health Care, Society, and Values
PHL 456 Public Health Ethics
PHL 457 Biomedical Ethics
PHL 482 Race in America

NOTE: No more than 3 hours of courses cross-listed as SRP may be counted toward this major program of study.