Texts

The Promise of Living from THE TENDERLAND

Horace Everett/Aaron Copland

The promise of living with open thanksgiving is born of our loving our friends and our labor.
The promise of growing with faith and was knowing is born of our sharing our love with their neighbor.

The promise of living the promise of growing is born of are singing and joy and thanksgiving.

(simultaneously)

For many a year we've known these fields and known all the work that makes them yield.

Are you ready to lend a hand?
By working together will bring in the harvest,
the blessing of harvest.

We plant each row with seeds of grain,
and providence send us the sun and the rain,
by lending a hand, by lending an arm,
Bring out,
bring out from the farm,
Bring out (the blessings,)
the blessings of harvest.

Or let us be joyful,

O let us be grateful,

Come join in thanking the Lord for his blessing.

Oh let us sing our song,
and let our song be heard.
Let's sing our song with our hearts,
and find the promise in that song.

We're ready to work, were ready to lend a hand.

We'll bring in the harvest,
the blessings of harvest.

We plow and plant each row
with seeds of grain,
Bring in from the land,
Bring out,
The blessing of harvest,
The blessings of harvest.

Give thanks there was sunshine,
give thanks there was rain,
give thanks we have hands
to deliver the grain,

O let us be joyful, O let us be grateful to the Lord for his blessing.

He promise of ending in right understanding is peace in our own hearts and peace with our neighbor.

The promise of living the promise of growing the promise of ending is labor and sharing and loving.
