Dancers to perform Nov. 19-21

The work of guest choreographer Marc Bogaerts will be featured in the upcoming production from A Company of Dancers. From Friday, Nov. 19 through Sunday, Nov. 21, the company will perform pieces choreographed by Bogaerts, Jill Lile, Mary Martin and Valerie Roche, ballet instructor and company director.

Internationally known choreographer Bogaerts has selected the music of Gabriel Faure’s “Requiem” for his work. Bogaerts is dedicating his dances to the young people of Boys Town and Uta Halee Village in Omaha.

Bogaerts was recently awarded a $2,000 grant from the Joffrey Ballet to continue his choreography.

Tickets for A Company of Dancers are $5 for adults, $3.50 for students, $2.50 for senior citizens and $2.50 for groups of 10 or more. Tickets are available at Brandeis, the Student Board office, the fine arts department and at the door. For reservations call ext. 2636.

Expert on Vergil speaks in series

Creighton’s Classics Club has helped bring a leading authority on Vergil to campus to speak on Vergil’s work in the last two decades, the context of Vergil’s writing and the impact of Vergil’s work in the modern world.
