Theatrical auditions planned for third week in January

Auditions for the two spring Creighton theatrical productions, “One Flew Over the Cuckoo’s Nest” and “Oklahoma!” will be held during the first week of classes of the spring semester.

“Oklahoma!” auditions will be held Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 21-22, at 7 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center. Anyone interested in auditioning for a speaking role should attend these auditions and be prepared to sing an audition song from “Oklahoma!” Auditionees must also attend dance auditions, which will begin at 7 p.m. The University Chorus will serve as the chorus for “Oklahoma!” Non-members of University Chorus who wish to audition for the “Oklahoma!” chorus must attend auditions and be free for rehearsals either Wednesday evenings from 7:30-10 p.m. or during University Chorus classtime, Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 3-4 p.m.

Dancers interested in feature dance roles are encouraged to take Theatre Dance, Fridays from 1:15-3:15 p.m., or to be free for rehearsal at that time.

For more information about dance roles, see Valerie Roche or Jill Lile, choreographers. For information about singing roles or orchestra, see Carole Bean, who is in charge of musical preparation. Dr. Suzanne Dieckman is the director for “Oklahoma!” Dance and music rehearsals will be held throughout the semester; full stage rehearsals will begin March 18.

Auditions for “One Flew Over the Cuckoo’s Nest,” directed by Dr. Bill Hutson, will be held January 23 and 24 at 7:30 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center. There are roles for 18 men and 5 women. It will be possible for a performer to be cast in both “One Flew Over the Cuckoo’s Nest” and “Oklahoma!” so interested performers should attend both sets of auditions.

“One Flew Over the Cuckoo’s Nest” will be performed Feb. 28-March 2 and March 7-9. “Oklahoma!” will be performed April 18-21 and 25-28.
