Art show continues
The Faculty Art show runs through March 15 in the Fine Arts Gallery. Top left: A work of John Thein using glass, marble and ebony. Top right: A work of Bob Bosco.

Thesis show to feature Snipp
The Bachelor of Fine Arts Thesis Show on March 18 to April 19 will exclusively feature the work of Kirsten Snipp.

Usually the thesis show is a combination of the work of three or four students, each student displaying seven or eight pieces. Snipp has prepared for the show for two years.

"I'm excited and feel that the show will be the culmination of my work," she said.

She will display 25 pieces, some she has done in class but most that she did independently.

The thesis show fulfills the requirement of a BFA degree, a requirement that a BA major does not have to fill.

John Thein is an associate professor of fine arts and Snipp's advisor.

"It's quite an undertaking for a student at a bachelor's level to put on the show alone and still maintain the quality of work," he said.

"I'm resolved and satisfied with the work I've done. Now I am preparing for the show," Snipp said.

The show will be in the Fine Arts Gallery on the second floor of the Fine Arts Building.