Fine arts thesis show opens

by Kristl Wise
Reporter

The BFA Thesis Show featuring Leslie Swinerton and Sau-Ling Yu will run from April 18-29 in the Fine Arts Gallery.

"Many of my works have theological themes," Swinerton said, "and will double up on a Theological Thesis about the Gospel of John."

"Political themes are also found in my works and are done with word and image combinations," Swinerton said.

Swinerton plans to attend graduate school, although she is still unsure where.

"The Gathering," a work done by Swinerton and two other women, can also be viewed in the show.

Yu's works are mainly portraits of her friends. "I have tried to put together a fun, light-hearted show," said Yu. "I had the most fun doing the self portraits," she added.

Yu hopes to attend graduate school on the east or west coast.

"The artists' styles are different but the experience of putting together that show is similar, they said. Gallery hours are Monday-Saturday 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. and Sunday noon to 4 p.m."