CU theater begins year

PAUL CHOI AND TYLER FARRELL
ENTERTAINMENT EDITORS

As the school year begins so does the hard work of the theater department. Many people devote a lot of time and energy to making the theater look its best.

In the past, the CU theater has presented many great productions such as M. Butterfly, Bye Bye Birdie, The Heidi Chronicles and True West. This year will once again produce three great plays as well as the One Act Play Festival.

In the first semester, Creighton students can see The Boys Next Door, a drama about five mentally handicapped men living in a house and the antics they deal with. The dates for this play is October 5–9.

Also, the play Les Liaisons Dangereuses will be performed on December 1–4 and 8–11. Many people might know this play when it was made into the 1989 movie Dangerous Liaisons starring John Malkovich and Glenn Close.

The second semester will include The Real Inspector Hound on Feb. 22–26 and the One Act Play Festival on Apr. 27–30.

All productions will take place at the Interim Performing Arts Center on 30th and Burt Streets.