Research Project Manager
(Temporary Position in Omaha) Coordinate all day-to-day aspects of a NIH funded study on sexual victimization. Manage and supervise a team of undergraduate research assistants. Act as a liaison between research assistants and the faculty Principal Investigator. Duties include: 1) recruitment, training, and supervision of undergraduate research assistants; 2) recruitment and longitudinal tracking of study participants; 3) preparation of materials for the experimental sessions; 4) preparing and modifying IRB forms; 5) assisting in the initial set up of statistical software and conducting basic data analyses. BA or BS in Psychology or other Social Science field and proficiency with word processing and spreadsheet software required. One year experience with Behavior Research Methods and familiarity with SPSS software preferred. Criminal history background check will be conducted. Applicant review begins Nov 22, 2010. View requisition 100708 at https://employment.unl.edu for complete information and to apply. UNL is committed to a pluralistic campus community through affirmative action, equal opportunity, work-life balance, and dual careers.