Program mission
Informed by Ignatian ideals, a global perspective, social work knowledge, values, skills, ethics, history and purpose, the Department of Social Work is dedicated to the formation of competent, effective entry level generalist social work practitioners, as social change agents committed to the well-being of self and others, engaging in the pursuit of social and economic justice, empowerment of vulnerable populations, human rights, and the advancement of social work knowledge including the mutual influence of research and social work practice.

Social Work Program Goals
1. Prepare undergraduate generalist social work practitioners grounded in evidence-informed practice, to work with individuals, families, groups, organizations and communities including an understanding and applicability of the global perspective for practice.
2. Prepare entry level practitioners who apply ethical decision-making based on social work values, standards and ignatian ideals.
3. Prepare social work leaders committed to advancing social and economic justice and human rights along with reducing social and economic inequities in society.

1.0 Course Description
This course prepares undergraduate social work practitioners to advance client/system well-being through community and organizational change. Focus is on applying the concepts and principles of social change and advocacy for social and economic justice with marginalized and disenfranchised populations. Emphasis is on constructing and using ethical and professional social work frames of reference for practice and understanding the interlocking nature of race, class and gender in alleviating oppression and discrimination.

4.0 Course Requirements--attendance

In the event of disruption of normal classroom activities due to a H1N1 flu outbreak, the format for this course may be modified to enable completion of the course. In that event, you will be provided an addendum to this syllabus that will supersede this version.

In the event of a H1N1 outbreak, you are granted up to two (2) days of missed classes without a doctor’s note. However you must let me know when you become ill. If you miss more than two (2) classes, you must provide a doctor’s excuse. Five points are deducted from the total points for each additional absence after two absences.

5.0 Evaluation and Grading

1. There are three in-class exams worth 100 points each. Exams cover the reading material as well as lectures, presentations, films and guest speakers.

2. Paper. 100 points
   - a. The objectives of the paper are to
      i. Understand the dynamics of injustice, oppression and discrimination and
      ii. Understand the multiplicity and intersectional nature of advocacy social justice advocacy focusing on helping marginalized, underserved populations.
iii. Apply concepts, principles, strategies and techniques of advocacy to the problem
iv. Apply ethical decision-making to a problem situation.
v. Use empirical research and evidence-informed knowledge when using the social change and advocacy approaches.

b. Students select a marginalized, under-served or oppressed population who is experiencing some form of injustice. You are free to select domestic or global experiences.
i. Identify the problem/form of injustice/oppression.
   a. Describe the nature and scope of the issue/injustice this population is experiencing.
   b. Describe the perceived cause of the issue/injustice.
   c. Analyze it’s component parts—in other words, how is the issue related to other societal aspects such as economics, political, social, cultural, religious, etc.?
   d. Apply the advocacy concepts, principles, theories, strategies, techniques for changing the issue. While this is a theoretical application of advocacy, I intend to evaluate your change efforts within the criteria of feasibility or do-ability.
   e. Identify ethical dimensions of your selected strategies and techniques. How will you resolve them?
   f. Identify empirical research and evidence informed knowledge of advocacy, social justice and oppression.

c. Paper length and structure—10 pages; use APA for structure and bibliographic references.

Paper Evaluation criteria

93-100 points = A

An "A" paper is an outstanding piece of writing with no grammatical, punctuation, spelling and usage errors. It describes the topic sufficiently producing a high level of understanding and authority. Attention to problem/form of injustice is well-documented and the nature/scope of the issue is described in enough detail to give the reader an excellent understanding. The paper is well-analyzed relative to its component parts—relates issue to other societal aspects and their implications. Advocacy content is applied to the change effort. Suggested change effort is feasible/do-able. The paper must have an introduction, body and conclusion. Appropriate transitions between major ideas are present. An "A" paper has a minimum of six (6) outside references appropriately cited (those not part of the assigned reading). This paper is superior and achieves a high level of intellectual inquiry.

83-92 points = B

A "B" paper is still a quality paper but less than an "A" paper in that it has several grammatical, punctuation and spelling errors. This paper does not present a full picture so as not to fully understand the nature and scope of the topic. It is less developed conceptually, organizationally, and methodologically. Some analysis of component parts of the issue attended to but not fully. Some advocacy content applied—not fully developed. The feasibility of suggested change effort is questionable. The paper lacks one of the following—introduction, body, and conclusion. Uneven application of transitional phrases is present. There are less than six outside references.

73-82 points = C

A "C" paper addresses the objectives of the assignment in a clear fashion but without direction or depth. Attention to grammar, punctuation, spelling is uneven. The issue is described in general terms and does not give a full picture of its nature and scope. Analysis of the issue is elementary and one-sided. Advocacy content applied but suggested change efforts are not viable/feasible. Transitions between ideas are missing in most respects. A "C" paper is in control of the subject but not in a comprehensive manner. Three (3) outside references are included in the narrative. Some grammar, spelling and punctuation errors are present.
Clearly this paper avoids requirements of the assignment—paper objectives are not addressed or address in a minimal fashion. It is characterized by unsubstantiated and general statements reflecting personal opinion and lacks references to bibliographic citations. Some attempt made to analyze the component parts of the issue but is very basic. Advocacy content is missing or applied incorrectly. Transitional phrases are missing. Grammar, spelling, and punctuation make the narrative difficult to read. Less than three (3) outside references are present.

Less than 63 points = F

A "F" paper has many grammatical, spelling and punctuation errors. It does not address the objectives of the assignment and minimally deals with the topic. A cogent, analytical position on the topic was not taken. Attention to analysis, application of advocacy content is missing. Outside references are absent.

Other considerations

In writing your paper, please remember that plagiarism is the purposeful use of another person’s ideas or words, without attributing those words or ideas to the other person. If you are using information you gained someplace other than your own mind, provide the source, even if this source is your textbook. Plagiarism is very serious, and can result in the failure of the assignment or the class contingent upon the seriousness of infraction. Further, the Academic Honesty Policy described at https://www2.creighton.edu/fileadmin/user/CCAS/docs/acadhonesty.html is adhered to when a situation of academic dishonesty is identified.
