

About Creighton University:

- Creighton is one of 28 Jesuit universities in the U.S. devoted to educating the whole person, with a spirit of service and leadership, academic excellence and community.
- US News & World Report consistently ranks Creighton as the number one Master's University in the Midwest in their "America's Best Colleges" edition...a category we are in because of the high number of professionals we educate in our Arts & Sciences, Medical, Dental, Pharmacy, Physical Therapy, Occupational Therapy, Nursing, Law, and Business programs.
- The freshman academic profile places Creighton among the top six private universities in the Midwest with more than 4,000 students. Only the University of Notre Dame, Northwestern University, University of Chicago, and Washington University in St. Louis rank higher. Creighton's profile also places it in the top 10 Catholic universities in the country.
- The College of Business Administration is ranked in the top one-third of nationally-accredited business schools by the AACSB. The accounting program is one of only 169 AACSB accredited accounting programs. Within AACSB, the college has been recognized for its initiatives in e-commerce and leadership.
- Nearly 60 percent of College of Arts & Sciences graduates gain enrollment in a top-level graduate or professional school, making Creighton's acceptances among the highest in the nation. About 40 percent accept full-time positions in business, teaching or volunteer work.
- Creighton ranks in the top five "Top Wired Colleges" in the nation for our cutting-edge technology and wireless capabilities.
