Financial Aid Office

The financial aid office is required to verify the accuracy of information reported on your FAFSA and to make corrections if necessary. Your financial aid award cannot be changed and cannot be paid to your student account until verification is complete. If possible, all verification documents need to be submitted together.

2013 Income Information for Federal Income Tax Filers

As a result of recent changes in federal regulations, federal tax returns are no longer considered to be acceptable documentation of income. The IRS tax return transcript is now required. When you completed the FAFSA, you (and your parent(s), if dependent) had the option to select the IRS Data Retrieval process. This allows the IRS to transfer your tax return information directly to your FAFSA.

- If you (if independent) or if your parent(s) (if dependent) selected the IRS Data Retrieval process, and were notified that the transmission was successful, you do not need to submit a copy of your tax return transcript. Be sure to submit copies of all 2013 W-2s to the Financial Aid Office.
- If you (if independent) or if your parent(s) (if dependent) did not select the IRS Data Retrieval process, or the transmission was not successful, you will need to submit a copy of your (and your parents, if dependent) tax return transcript (go to the Verification menu item at www.creighton.edu/financialaid for instructions) and copies of all W-2s to the Financial Aid Office.

2013 Income Information for Non-Tax Filers

☐ □ Check the box if you did not file and were not required to file a 2013 federal income tax return.

- If you (or your parent(s), if dependent) did not file and were not required to file a 2013 federal income tax return, list below your (and/or your parent(s), if dependent) employer(s)/source(s) and amount(s) of income received in 2013. Be sure to submit copies of all W-2s.

Special Circumstances

We require the following documentation if you answered 'Yes' to the Dislocated Worker question on your FAFSA or if you estimate that your 2014 income will be less than your 2013 income due to loss of employment, separation/divorce, reduction in work hours/pay, or extraordinary medical/dental expenses not reimbursed by insurance.

- A separate page explaining the reduction in income
- A completed Estimated Yearly Income Form (to print the form go to www.creighton.edu/financialaid, then Commonly Used Forms.)
- Applicable third-party documentation supporting the claim (such as copy of final paystub, copy of separation letter from employer, copy of benefits package, unemployment information, separation/divorce decree, etc.)
