

We've Come A Long Way Baby, But Not Far Enough: Progress and Problems of Women in Higher Education

March 4, 2013 @ 7pm-8pm
Creighton University's Hixson Lied Auditorium in the Harper Center

Dr. Bernice R. Sandler, Godmother of Title IX will present a short overview on how far women have come with the implementation of Title IX and other policies that have brought us to the current conditions in higher education. She will then focus on discussing some of the many issues that still need attention in today's higher education environment. Dr. Sandler is a Senior Scholar at the Women's Research and Education Institute in Washington, DC, where she consults with institutions and others about achieving equity for women and is an Adjunct Associate Professor at Drexel University College of Medicine.

Sponsored by Creighton University's:
Office of Multicultural Affairs
Lieben Center ~ Affirmative Action Office
Office of Equity and Inclusion ~ Human Resources
Lectures, Films, and Concerts
Diversity Action Team (IDEA Program)
Women in Medicine and Science
Committee on the Status of Women
Department of Athletics

