

Graduate Student Government
Student Life Chair

Name: Mamie S. Hill

Program: MSOL

When did you begin graduate school at Creighton? August 2018

Why would you be a good candidate for this position? In my previous and current career, I have always had the privilege to be an advocate for those I lead. I understand how demanding graduate school and family life can be, and with that feel confident in my ability to relate, empathize, and relay the concerns of my fellow graduate students.

What experience or qualifications do you possess that would help you serve in this position? Former Military Officer who has led both in garrison and combat; my main role as a Platoon Leader was to ensure the health and wellness of my Soldiers. Additionally, I am currently an Administrative Lead, and am capable of meeting the needs of many different customers within my organization – my entire job is to listen to our organizations needs and find ways to accommodate them.

List potential goals and ideas for the position: 1) Work hard to make the Graduate community more close-knit, as well as create unique ways to solicit feedback from the graduate students. 2) Found a board or forum for graduate students to interact, outside of the classroom boards housed in canvas. Sometimes graduate students have questions, e.g., “How did you embed such and such table into your paper?” and it would be nice to be able to ask those types of questions, ones you might casually ask another person if you were sitting next to them in a classroom. I feel like there is no space for that currently.

Besides graduate coursework, what other time commitments do you have (jobs, organizations, committees, etc.)? I work full-time as an Administrative Lead, I am a part of my company’s Young Professionals Group, and I am a full-time wife and mother.
