Google Scholar

RefWorks Users need to set an export preference to send data from Google Scholar to their RefWorks account.

To set this feature up in Google Scholar:

1. Access Google Scholar from the Health Sciences Library website (hsl.creighton.edu)
   a. From the HSL homepage, click on Resources (left side of screen)
   b. From the resulting screen, scroll down to the Multidisciplinary Databases section – select Google Scholar
2. Once at Google Scholar, click on the cog icon (upper right of screen, to the right of "Sign in")

3. From the resulting menu, click on Scholar Preferences

4. Scroll down to the Bibliography Manager section.

5. Select Show Links to import citations into and select RefWorks from the drop-down box.

6. Click Save Preferences (lower right of screen).

To initate a direct export to RefWorks:

(Note: only one record at a time will be exported to RefWorks.)

1. Conduct your search in Google Scholar

2. Each record displayed will have an Import into RefWorks link. Click on the link. If you are not logged in to RefWorks, the RefWorks Login screen will appear – log in to RefWorks

3. The RefWorks import screen should appear – your record is in the Last Imported Folder (lower right of screen).
