

Trial access to Dentistry and Oral Sciences Source (DOSS) database

Creighton University students and faculty have trial access to the Dentistry and Oral Sciences Source (DOSS) database on the EBSCOhost platform through the end of 2017. Access to DOSS is here.

DOSS, an index to dentistry and oral sciences literature, contains indexing and abstracts of more than 300 academic journals in all areas of dentistry (160 with current full-text articles with no embargo, and 40 with embargoes from 6 to 18 months) and 31 full-text books. The Health Sciences Library currently subscribes to only 8 of the active full-text journals in the collection (highlighted in blue below).

Please explore this database and consider whether it would be a useful support to the teaching and research of the Creighton University School of Dentistry. Send comments and inquiries to Bryan Stack, Collection Services Librarian, bryanstack@creighton.edu or 402-280-5137.
