The Institute for Priestly Formation’s sponsorship of this ongoing series of symposia provides a forum for research, reflection and publication about various aspects of the spirituality and identity of the diocesan priest.

With this present symposium, the Institute returns to the theme of “Chaste Celibacy” in order to deepen the understanding of how the diocesan priest receives this gift. Inspired by Ephesians 4, 12-13 (the Body of Christ being built “to mature manhood, to the extent of the full stature of Christ”) the symposium will focus on affective maturity, brought about through God’s healing power, blossoming into a life of virtue and a full peaceful receiving of the gift of celibacy.

THE INSTITUTE FOR PRIESTLY FORMATION
MISSION STATEMENT
The Institute for Priestly Formation has been founded to assist in the spiritual formation of diocesan seminarians and priests in the Roman Catholic Church. Working as a complement to already existing programs of seminary formation, the Institute responds to the need for a more concentrated and integrated spiritual formation. Inspired by the biblical-evangelical spirituality of Ignatius Loyola, the Institute’s programs present a spirituality that can inspire, motivate and thus sustain the busy lives of contemporary diocesan priests.
