THIS SYMPOSIUM IS DEDICATED TO POPE JOHN PAUL II, WHOSE WRITINGS AND LIFE WITNESS CALLED FOR BOTH A "NEW EVANGELIZATION" IN THE CHURCH AND FOR THE RENEWAL OF PRIESTLY FORMATION. WE ENTRUST THE SYMPOSIUM TO THE INTERCESSION OF ST. PETER EYMARD WHOSE DEVOTION TO THE EUCHARIST LED HIM TO REACH OUT ACTIVELY TO THOSE WHO WERE ESTRANGED FROM THE CHURCH AND TO EVANGELIZE THEM.

The Institute for Priestly Formation's sponsorship of this ongoing series of symposia provides a forum for research, reflection and publication about various aspects of the spirituality and identity of the diocesan priest. This present symposium will reflect on Pope John Paul II's call for a "new evangelization" and the ways in which this call impacts the process of priestly formation. This symposium builds upon the 2005 symposium which was entitled, "Interiority for Mission: Spiritual Formation for Priests of the New Evangelization."

THE INSTITUTE FOR PRIESTLY FORMATION MISSION STATEMENT

The Institute for Priestly Formation was founded to assist bishops in the spiritual formation of diocesan seminarians and priests in the Roman Catholic Church. The Institute responds to the need to foster spiritual formation as the integrating and governing principle of all aspects of priestly formation. Inspired by the biblical-evangelical spirituality of Ignatius Loyola, this spiritual formation has as its goal the cultivation of a deep interior communion with Christ; from such communion the priest shares in Christ's own pastoral charity. In carrying out its mission, the Institute directly serves diocesan seminarians and priests as well as those who are responsible for diocesan priestly formation.-
