Join Dr. Ishii-Jordan on an exciting 4-week study abroad program to the foothills of the Himalayas. This is a special trip for teachers or those majoring in education. You will assist teachers in elementary and high schools that are run by the Jesuits for indigenous populations in the northeast of India. You will participate in a seminar course studying perspectives on a framework of world cultures and languages (EDU 544), with a special focus on the groups in this area of India. In the evenings and on weekends, you will have time to socialize, engage in reflection, study, and meet with villagers.

COST: $2300  (which includes land travel in India, lodging, meals, sightseeing, insurance, visa, and tuition for the 3-credit hour course).  Not Airfare.

Adventure awaits you!
Children await you!

Northeast India

Application deadline
December 1, 2014
(Priority Deadline)

- Live simply with Jesuits
- Serve with teachers in English-speaking schools
- Learn about cultures in Meghalaya & Nagaland
- Learn about yourself
- Expand your world view
- Visit the Taj Mahal

Sharon Ishii-Jordan, Ph.D.
College of Arts and Sciences
Creighton University
2500 California Plaza
Omaha, NE  68178
(402)280-3887
sij@creighton.edu