International Student Association Nomination Form for 2010-2011 Elections

ISA's mission on campus is to:
To promote friendship, understanding, unity and support among international students at CU through social, cultural, and academic activities. Further, to extend and foster this understanding and friendship to our American colleagues at Creighton and to the community at large. Finally, to provide an opportunity for people to share their cultural traditions within the association.

ISA is seeking nominations for the following positions:
President
Executive Vice President
VP of Public Relations
VP of Cultural and Social Affairs
VP of Finance (Treasurer)
VP of Administrative Affairs (Secretary)

Eligibility criteria: Student must be enrolled full-time and have completed at least one semester at Creighton. Students can nominate themselves or others. Student does NOT have to be an international student in order to hold an executive position within the organization.

Anyone who is interested in international issues/cultures is invited to run.
