The Lieben Center for Women is hosting a Women’s Professionalism Night to be held Tuesday, April 9th from 7-8pm in the Harper Auditorium. The event program will consist of a short professional dress fashion show hosted by Lisa Brockoff Fitzsimmons from the Career Center. Following the show, she will be addressing Social Media in the workplace as well as the hot topic of the Facebook page CU Confessions. For the second half of the program, we will have Mary Lee Brock from the Werner Institute speak on how to effectively negotiate salary as a woman.

WE HOPE TO SEE YOU THERE!

The LC is looking for interns for the 2013 - 2014 year! Go to Jobs4Jays to check out position descriptions for the following:

There is a lot of misconception and damaging opinion surrounding sexual assault in this country.

Drunkenness is not consent.

April is Sexual Assault Awareness Month, and the SAAM campaign encourages us to “talk about it,” and to raise awareness to fight the stigma that causes over 60% of Sexual Assault victims to remain silent.

Nobody is ever “asking” for it.

1 in 4 women in this country have been or will be victims of sexual assault in their lifetimes. 25%

And college students are four times more likely to be assaulted.

It’s time to talk about it.
