

Master Outfit

The gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist. The sleeve base hangs down in the traditional manner. The rear part of its oblong shape is square cut, and the front part has an arc cut away. Masters wear a traditional mortarboard with long tassel. The master hood is 3 1/2 feet long and is trimmed with 3" wide degree color velvet. The colors of the institution are displayed in the inside lining of the hood. Red and White lining shown.

Garment Bags

Garment Bags are available in cloth with embroidered personal initials or vinyl with Willsie logo and business card holder.

Doctor Tam

Styled in the tradition of the first graduates to wear regalia, the octagonal velvet tam with two-button gold metallic tassel is the crowning item denoting the degree of Doctor. The tam is designed to rest quite comfortably on the head.

Mortarboard

A long tassel is to be fastened to the middle point of the top of the mortarboard only and to lie as it will thereon. The tassel should be black or the color appropriate to the degree, with the exception of the doctor's cap that may have a tassel of old gold.

Doctor Hood

The doctor hood is 4 feet long and is trimmed with 5" wide degree color velvet. The colors of the institution are displayed in the inside lining of the hood. All Ph.D. hoods will be trimmed in dark blue velvet unless specifically noted otherwise. Purple and Two White lining shown.

A word about Ph.D. In the case of the Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) degree, the dark blue color is used to represent the mastery of the discipline of learning and scholarship in any field that is attested to by the awarding of this degree and is not intended to represent the field of philosophy. Typically, the Department or Field of Study is not represented on the gown or hood, with some exceptions.
