Creighton’s Online Bachelor’s Degree Programs

20th ranked No. 20 nationally by U.S. News & World Report

ENROLLMENT

300+ adult students

WEEK CLASSES

8 offered through AcceleratedCreighton

OF ONLY

20 universities in the U.S. offering undergraduate degrees in Emergency Medical Services (EMS)

SPECIALIZATION TRACKS

3 in the online Bachelor’s in Leadership:

- health care management
- nonprofit management
- human capital management

OF PRIOR LEARNING ACCEPTED, INCLUDING:

- transfer credits from other accredited institutions
- credit by examination
- credit for professional certification, including military service

RESOURCES AVAILABLE

24/7/365

1983 year established as University College, the College of Professional Studies (CPS) focuses on the education needs of the busy adult learner

BY THE NUMBERS

- 15% of CPS students are veterans

- 50+ adult students graduated in 2015 from 20+ programs

- 50% of CPS students are veterans

- 1 of only 20 universities in the U.S. offering undergraduate degrees in Emergency Medical Services (EMS)

- 25 students inducted into Alpha Sigma Lambda, the national honor society for full- and part-time adult students

- Up to 80% of prior learning accepted, including:

- transfer credits from other accredited institutions
- credit by examination
- credit for professional certification, including military service

Want to know more?

Call 402.280.2703

Visit adultdegrees.creighton.edu

01-2016