

CHRISTIAN SPIRITUALITY (CSP)

Program Director: Richard J. Hauser, S.J.
Program Office: University College, Eppley College of Business, Room B11

GRADUATE STUDY IN CHRISTIAN SPIRITUALITY

Creighton University's graduate program in Christian Spirituality holds as its primary value the integration of these three elements: (1) a thorough knowledge of Christian Spirituality based on Scripture, Church Tradition and Christian heritage, contemporary theology and psychology with an emphasis on Ignatian Spirituality; (2) experiential appropriation of the mysteries of the Christian faith, grounded in human development through reflection, prayer and communal worship; (3) an apostolic orientation directed toward more effective ministry skills especially toward preparation for giving spiritual direction and directed retreats. These are not viewed as successive stages or compartments but as a lived synthesis of mind, heart and mission.

Program Goals

At the completion of their program, the graduates will:

1. Have the skills to deliver spiritual direction and directed retreats - (Certificate graduates).
2. Analyze, interpret, and critique advanced scholarly writing in the field of study of Christian Spirituality.
3. Effectively communicate information within the field of Christian Spirituality to specialists and non-specialists alike, both orally and in writing.

Faculty

Professors: Hamm, Harmless, Hauser, O'Keefe, Wright;
Associate Professors: Kelly, Shanahan;
Assistant Professor: Burke-Sullivan, Calef, Harris.

Admission Requirements

Prerequisites for Admissions

A baccalaureate degree; 12 recent credits in: Old Testament, New Testament, Theological Ethics and some type of Contemporary Christian Theology; Share the spiritual goals of the program.

In addition, Certificate candidates must be 30 years of age, completed 2 years of regular spiritual direction.

Note: It is recommended, but not required, that candidates complete an 8-day silent, directed retreat prior to entering the program. An 8-day silent retreat is required before beginning the second summer of Certificate study.

Admission Requirements

All applicants must provide three letters of recommendation addressing their life of faith and prayer in addition to the usual credentials for admission to the Graduate School. It would be helpful to the admission committee if the applicant provided a short letter of introduction explaining their reasons for seeking the degree and or certificate. All materials should be sent to the Graduate School.

Master of Arts (M.A.) with a Major in Christian Spirituality

The degree requires 33 credit hours of course work. The courses are distributed so that one can finish the degree in three summers. Students are encouraged to make a personally directed retreat before or during the first year of the program. Students are required to make a personally directed retreat of eight days, under an approved director, during the program. No thesis is required, but an integrating essay of approximately 25 pages is required at the conclusion of the program.
