POLICY: The Skutt Student Center is a central focus for the development of the campus community. It provides a location to meet, a setting for events and leisure time activities, and a home for social interaction and collegial exchange. The Center provides programs and positions of leadership that enhance students' campus involvement and personal development, all the while enriching and upholding the ideals and beliefs of Creighton University, the Division of Student Services, and Jesuit education. In so doing, it seeks to effectively manage its facilities and services and be responsive to the changing needs of the campus population while instilling a strong foundation for student and campus growth.
