Outstanding Leadership in Multicultural Communities Award

This award of distinction is presented to any undergraduate student who distinguishes her/himself as a campus leader with strong leadership skills, is an ambassador of the Creighton University mission, serves as a catalyst for positive change, significantly contributes to the quality of life on campus, works to improve inter-group relations and/or coordinates exemplary programming efforts to bridge student organizations.

How to submit a nomination for this award:

1. Complete the nomination information on this page.
2. Compose at least one recommendation letter. There is no maximum number of recommendations accepted, and multiple letters will not necessarily make a nominee’s candidacy stronger. (Self-nominations are acceptable.)
3. Submit this page and the recommendation letter(s) by email to Lrodriguez@creighton.edu or in hardcopy format to the Office of Multicultural Affairs, Harper Center, Ste. 1109, by 5:00 PM on Friday, March 21, 2014.

Nomination Information:

Nominee’s Name: ____________________________________________________________
Nominee’s Primary Phone Number: ____________________________________________
Nominee’s E-mail: ____________________________________________________________
Nominee’s Address: __________________________________________________________
Name of Nominator (optional): ________________________________________________