Dr. Ngwarsungu Chiwengo

Dr. Ngwarsungu Chiwengo is a Professor of English here at Creighton University and a native of the Congo who specializes in African literature. She is also the current advisor for Creighton's African Student Association (AFSA). Her work has appeared in such journals as South Atlantic Quarterly, Journal of Black Studies, and African Literature Association Bulletin. As part of the Solidarity Lecture Series, Dr. Chiwengo will be presenting some of her research and the work that she has done with women in the Congo. (2 IDEA units)

Office of Multicultural Affairs

This series hosted by the Office of Multicultural Affairs is an opportunity for the Creighton community to hear from faculty who will share research and work in areas of diversity and multiculturalism. For more information or if you are a CU faculty member interested in being part of the lecture series, please contact Luz Colon-Rodriguez at lrodriquez@creighton.edu or check out the Office of Multicultural Affairs website: <http://oma.creighton.edu>.
