Mission Statement

Creighton is a Catholic and Jesuit comprehensive university committed to excellence in its selected undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs.

As Catholic, Creighton is dedicated to the pursuit of truth in all its forms and is guided by the living tradition of the Catholic Church.

As Jesuit, Creighton participates in the tradition of the Society of Jesus which provides an integrating vision of the world that arises out of a knowledge and love of Jesus Christ.

As comprehensive, Creighton’s education embraces several colleges and professional schools and is directed to the intellectual, social, spiritual, physical, and recreational aspects of students’ lives and to the promotion of justice.

Creighton exists for students and learning. Members of the Creighton community are challenged to reflect on transcendent values, including their relationship with God, in an atmosphere of freedom of inquiry, belief, and religious worship.

Service to others, the importance of family life, the inalienable worth of each individual, and appreciation of ethnic and cultural diversity are core values of Creighton.

Creighton faculty members conduct research to enhance teaching, to contribute to the betterment of society, and to discover new knowledge. Faculty and staff stimulate critical and creative thinking and provide ethical perspectives for dealing with an increasingly complex world.

The White and the Blue

Words and music by Gordon Richmond.

The White and the Blue!

Colors two, it is you we defend.

Fearless for you,

Our might to the fight we will lend.

We will fight till the fight is won.

Greek Life

Friendship • Leadership • Service • Scholarship

Friendship: There is no doubt that one of the best things that Greek Life has to offer is friendship. Chapter social programs create opportunities to meet new friends. Chapters strive to implement activities that create a stimulating environment in which you develop into a mature and responsible individual. The wide variety of projects in which students become involved gives everyone a chance to do something they enjoy.

Leadership: Fraternities and Sororities foster strong leadership. Chapters help members to develop leadership skills through involvement in the chapter and throughout campus. Many of the top student leaders on the Creighton campus are affiliated with our Greek community! As self-governing organizations, our Greek members gain valuable leadership experience. The Panhellenic and Interfraternity Councils help coordinate the programming efforts of our chapters, while our Greek Standards Board holds our members accountable for their actions. Campus Life at Creighton University includes more than the classroom experience. Greek Life can provide many opportunities to develop your interpersonal and leadership skills, as well as invaluable training for the challenges you will face after life at Creighton.

Service: The concerns of Greek men and women extend far and beyond the confines of campus life. Greek chapters sponsor a multitude of activities that are an integral component of Greek Life. A few of the community groups who benefit from the collaborative efforts of the Greek Community are the American Heart Association, Gifford Park Neighborhood Association, Latino Literacy Efforts, St. Vincent de Paul Family Shelter, Muscular Dystrophy Association, Multiple Sclerosis Foundation, Nebraska AIDS Project, Girls Inc., the Omaha Boys and Girls Clubs, and the Siena/ Francis House. Up 'til Dawn raised over $200,000 for St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital in two years!

Scholarship: The men and women in our community seek excellence in their academic pursuits. Greek organizations at Creighton University promote academic achievement through activities such as study hours, awards, speakers, scholarships, and networking and career advice from alumni. All chapters maintain a QPA for membership. The minimum requirement to participate in recruitment activities is a cumulative 2.5 QPA.

Facts about Greek Life: Approximately one out of three Creighton undergraduates is affiliated with the Greek community.

The All-Greek QPA (Quality Point Average) of 3.357 is consistently higher than the All-University average.

Creighton University withholds all freshmen recruitment activities until second semester to encourage prospective members to acclimate to college life and concentrate on academics before adding involvement in the Greek community.

Mission Statement

Creighton University's residence life program seeks to enable students to develop their fullest potential intellectually, ethically, socially, and morally in the context of a residential community of students, Jesuit and lay chaplains, and residence hall staff. The aim is to provide students with opportunities so that they may better understand their deepest selves and, in doing so, determine their roles as educated members of society. We foster the Jesuit mission of Creighton University that believes in humanistic education through service, reflection, and learning. We attempt to foster this through service to others, both within the University community and beyond, and believe that this is accomplished best when shared with others similarly engaged in their own journeys of learning. It is through service that students come to appreciate their God-given gifts, learn of the inequities of society, and develop means to create a more just community of men and women.

The Residence Halls and Apartment Complexes at Creighton

Deglman Hall - Located in the center of campus, Deglman enjoys a sense of tradition, fun, and pride from the many women who have lived there. There’s a lot of space in the Deglman lower level to “hang out,” watch movies, or work in the computer lab. This five-story building houses 160 women. Deglman is also the home of The Eileen B. Lieben Center for Women. The Lieben Center provides women students at Creighton University with resources, services, and programs to enhance the experience of women students on our campus.

Gallagher Hall - Gallagher Hall, located on the west side of campus, is a co-educational hall, housing 195 students on four floors. Gallagher’s first floor is a “living room” for socializing and unwinding and includes a kitchenette.

Kiewit Hall - Almost 500 freshmen men and women call the nine floors of Kiewit Hall their home. Kiewit is adjoined to Becker Dining Hall with close access to the VJ and Angela Skutt Student Center and Kiewit Fitness Center. There is also a chapel, Muslim Prayer Room, and main hall lobby in the building as well as a conference room, study lounge, and a TV area. Kiewit is also the home to our Freshman Leadership Program. FLP is a place for undergraduate residents who place high value on academic achievement and leadership development, who want to enhance leadership, communication, and other life management skills in an atmosphere that both inspires and fosters academic growth.

Swanson Hall – Swanson is a nine-story residence hall housing housing both freshmen and sophomores. It is located in the center of campus and features suite-style living, as well as a chapel on first floor. Swanson Residence Hall is also home to the freshman Honors Scholars Community on 9th floor. This living-learning community, established in the Fall of 2005, is a wonderful opportunity for students.
entering the Honors program to live in community together during their first year at Creighton!

McGloin Hall - McGloin is a sophomore suite-style residence hall. Suites share a common living room and bathroom with two two-person bedrooms attached. McGloin is home to the Java Jay, where students can eat, study, and hang out. McGloin is also home to the Cortina Community, a service, faith and justice living-learning community. The Cortina Community has a strong history on our campus as a place to reflect, to serve, and to commune - learning from and with your peers.

Kenefick Hall - Kenefick Hall is a 16-story apartment building that provides housing for sophomores. Kenefick offers one-bedroom and efficiency double-occupancy apartments with a kitchen, bathroom, living room, and sleeping area. Kenefick also provides a TV lounge, exercise room, movie theatre, and underground parking.

Davis Square - Located on the east side of campus and adjacent to the Harper Center for Student Life & Learning, Davis is an apartment-style building for juniors and seniors. Davis offers two, three and four bedroom apartments and is home to the Davis Diner.

Opus Hall - Opus is an apartment-style building for juniors and seniors located next to the soccer stadium and the Harper Center for Student Life & Learning. Opus offers two, three, and four bedroom apartments. Opus Hall has a laundry room, vending machines, a 24-hour front desk, and a wonderful community room for gatherings and events.

Heider Hall - Heider Hall is a 12-story building, conveniently located near Omaha’s Joslyn Art Museum. Heider offers spacious living in furnished efficiency and one bedroom apartments and provides housing to students of all classes, as well as students with families.

Leadership in Residence Life

Residence Hall Council (RHC) - Each Freshman/Sophomore Hall has an RHC with several elected leadership positions. The RHCs provide opportunities for students to begin to develop to their fullest leadership potential. Typically RHCs plan events ranging from community builders to stress relievers to skill builders and much more. If you are living in a residence hall and you want to be involved on campus this is a great way to begin your leadership career at Creighton University. The Inter Residence Hall Government (IRHG) is the second largest undergraduate student organization on Creighton’s campus. Each year they provide an array of programs to all students living in the Residence Halls and their families and friends. There are several opportunities to get involved with IRHG through committees and senator positions.

What is University Ministry?

University Ministry is the division of the University that focuses on the spiritual growth and development of students, faculty and staff at Creighton University. The purpose is to bring about a world community based on our spiritual journey which leads to God’s love, freedom and justice.

Six University Ministry Departments serve the Creighton community with a variety of ministries that call forth the gifts of the entire community.

In service of the Jesuit Catholic character of Creighton, we gather the gifts of this richly diverse community that we all might grow in freedom as women and men for others.

Here are the six departments of University Ministry:

Ratio Studiorum Program

RSP is Creighton’s academic advising program for freshmen and sophomore students and serves as one of the main efforts to assist students in their transition to college life.

RSP 100

All first-year undergraduate students take this one-credit, letter-graded course. Led by a Faculty Preceptor and assisted by an upperclassman Decurion, this course covers such topics as the value of a liberal arts education, academic and student integrity, the discernment process, and Creighton’s Jesuit heritage. Reading, writing, and class discussions pursue the central question of “Who Am I?”
RSP 200
Arts and Sciences students choose a Pre-Major Advisor for the second year, during which a number of activities and events are held to help sophomores from all of the colleges address the question, “What’s My Passion?”

Welcome Week
Welcome Week is another program that is directed at helping Creighton’s first-year students transition to life at college. This nine-day program begins with Residence Hall move-in and continues with events, programs, and activities that are intended to help students make a connection to the campus community and to each other. Students meet in their RSP groups that are led by two sophomore leaders – a Beadle and a Welcome Week Guide.

Students can expect to participate in activities such as city-wide community service project, The Event in the Morrison Soccer Stadium, Jay Jam Carnival, Lip Sync contest, Foam Party, and the annual Welcome Week Dance – among others. Completely student run, Welcome Week will expose students to a variety of campus resources.

Go to creighton.edu/WelcomeWeek for more information.

Peer-to-Peer Learning
- Peer Education At Creighton (PEAC) student organization (see info below)
- Teach Responsible Alcohol Education (TRAC) – student taught alcohol education classes
- Blue Zone Holler Squad – Students who pro-actively educate peers about how to make responsible decisions around alcohol use

Peer Education At Creighton (PEAC)
PEAC is a dedicated group of students who support their peers in making healthy decisions throughout their college experience. Peer Educators present interactive workshops that provide information and skills to students that can help them be successful in areas of college life outside the classroom setting – like understanding alcohol use, body image, relationships, intimate boundaries, mental health and more. PEAC also serves Mocktails (non-alcoholic cocktails) at campus events and coordinates the popular “Newsflush” bathroom newsletter found within the Freshmen Residence Halls, Skutt Student Center and the Kiewit Fitness Center. Sponsoring such events as “Can I Kiss You?” in the fall and “Speed Dating” and “Fashion Extravaganza” in the Spring, peer educators engage students in learning about real life issues that impact their health and happiness.

Tips & Suggestions for Students and Families

Welcome from Career and Academic Planning (CAP) Program!

Creighton’s Career and Academic Planning Program has much to offer you and your student, including:

- Advisors who listen to your questions and concerns. Our staff has over 30 years of experience helping students of all ages with their academic and career journeys.

- Interest Surveys which help assess personal skills/interests and identify related occupations.

- Brochures describing careers, skills, interests, majors, courses required and more!

- Information that describes and helps you visualize the various companies and occupations.

  - Internet navigation to give you the most up-to-date graduate/professional school and career resources.

Young people today face the challenge of entering a very difficult, constantly changing working environment. How can you help them with their decisions?

- Identify skills. What are they good at? What do they excel in?

- Explore goals and interests. What would they like to do? What are their interests? Leisure-time activities/hobbies may lead to some exciting career possibilities!

- Think long-term. What quality experience (internships, part-time jobs) would enhance a resume and give valuable insight and experience?

Choosing the right career can be a confusing process. With an unlimited array of possibilities, students have difficulty deciding what is best suited for them. Questions to consider range from “Has my interest in this area decreased, and should I change my direction?” to “I like so many areas. It’s hard to decide!” Change is the only constant. Be prepared for many questions! Be involved in your student’s college life. At times, communication is difficult, but if you can be available and encouraging, your student can make informed career decisions.

Occasionally, students experience confusion to a degree requiring additional assistance. You might observe that:

- Student seems anxious, overworked or over-extended by work or courses.

- Student loses sight of goals, seems “paralyzed”, not able to make decisions.

- Student seems preoccupied, defensive or agitated for no apparent reason.

With any of these situations, you may suggest personal counseling, academic advising, or career counseling for help.
What is the CAP Program?

The Career and Academic Planning (CAP) Program is a special division of the Creighton Career Center. The CAP Program assists students with a three-step process involving Self-Awareness and Career Decision-Making, Academic and Career Opportunity Exploration, and Job Search Techniques and Skills. An understanding and thorough application of all three steps are needed to be successful in deciding a future career.

In the beginning.....

The Self-Awareness and Career Decision-Making component is a service provided by the CAP Program through individual counseling, assessments, group visits to the office, construction of four-year plans, and attendance at the Career Fairs and Major/Minor Exploration Fair. Freshmen and sophomores should complete this first step to make the transition into step two easier.

Then there are choices.....

The process of Academic and Career Opportunity Exploration is a fun and enriching experience. Through the CAP Program and the Career Center, assistance is offered by means of counseling, academic major selection, field trips to employer’s locations, graduate school information and internship opportunities.

Final Steps.....

When the time arrives to find that first job, the Career Center offers suggestions in regards to Search Techniques and Skills. These steps are typically utilized by juniors, seniors, and graduates. Assistance in this step ranges from counseling on resume writing and interview skills to conducting practice interviews. Job opportunities are provided through on-campus interviewing, job referrals and internship referrals.

The Career Center seeks to aid in the transition of the Creighton student from a life of school to a life of work. All services offered and additional information can be found on our web site.

Choosing Your Meal Plan
Meal plans are required for all freshman and sophomore students who live on campus. We offer a variety of plans for your convenience. By reading through this information you will find what best suits your needs. Think about how many sit down meals a day you eat now. Are you a breakfast eater? What will your class schedule be like?

The first two meals of the day offered on the meal plan Monday-Friday are in the Resident Dining Halls at the Becker and Brandeis Buildings, conveniently located between the largest residence halls. Your breakfast choices range from made to order omelets, Belgian Waffles, breakfast pastries, cold or hot cereal, fresh fruits and a full hot menu of breakfast meats, eggs and potatoes. Lunch is also served in Becker and Brandeis. With their food court design you can choose from grill, deli, pizza, soup, salad bar and more. Vegetarian options, cook to order options and complete home style menus are all part of your selections. Short on time? We have grab and go salads and sandwiches as an alternative to sit down dining.

Dinner options are wide open! All you care to eat dining is available at the Brandeis Dining Hall, or exchange your meal for a $5.40 value at the Davis Diner, Java Jay, Jack & Ed’s and Wareham Court. Weekend dining is available for brunch and dinner at Brandeis Dining Hall. Late night is another opportunity to choose a meal exchange from your meal plan. For your convenience Monday through Thursday, 10:30pm to midnight you may choose a $3.10 value meal exchange at Jack & Ed’s in the Skutt Student Center, Java Jay in McGloin Hall, and at Davis Diner in Davis Square. This is a great option for a late night bite or latte and gives a great value to your meal plan selection.

...Giving Students Better Choices!

Serving Creighton University since 1952
Students at Creighton University have access to a wealth of online resources. Registering for classes over the network and submitting a paper on BlueLine are just two examples of tools students have available. All students receive a NetID and set up their password prior to arriving on campus. The NetID is their key to access all over campus.

The first step to having access to these and many more online resources is getting connected with a notebook computer. Approximately 97% of Creighton students own their own computer. The majority of that 97% are notebook computers due to the flexibility they provide.

Besides developing skills, having a computer is a significant convenience, especially toward the end of the semester when demands upon computer labs are high. All student residences offer full Internet access to computers with a wireless or wired network card.

It is strongly recommended that you bring a computer with you, but if that is not an option for you, there are computer labs in residence halls, libraries and other buildings around campus.

Effective June 1, 2010, the University no longer has a Windows computer purchasing program. The University continues to honor warranties on previously purchased Windows systems.

The University has an agreement with Apple for discounted purchases. You can view your purchasing options at:
http://www.creighton.edu/doit/studentpurchase/index.php

Bringing a computer to Creighton

While Creighton University does not recommend one laptop over another or Mac over PC, we do have some general guidelines of minimum specifications that laptops coming to campus should meet.

Minimum Computing Standards:
- Processor: Intel Core 2 Duo 2.0GHz or equivalent
- Operating System: Microsoft Windows XP, Vista, Windows 7 or Macintosh OSX Leopard (10.5) or Snow Leopard (10.6)
- Memory: 3GB of RAM or more
- Hard Drive: 160GB of space or more
- Connectivity: Wireless 802.11 a/g/n
- DVD-ROM

The Computing Standards listed are the MINIMUM standards. The College of Business and the College of Arts and Sciences have provided a recommendation for computer purchases in those areas. To view the recommendation, please visit:
http://store.apple.com/us_edu_252700/recommended

General Expectations

It is expected that if a student brings a computer to campus he/she is responsible for:
1. Reading manuals
2. Doing basic setup using instructions provided
3. Bringing system restore discs
4. Meeting campus standards for connection to our network
5. Having licensed software and proof of license
6. Making regular backups of his/her own data
7. Keeping his/her computer up to date and secure
8. Being familiar with posted computing policies:
   http://www.creighton.edu/doit/policies/
9. Safeguarding his/her Blue password by never sharing that information

Additional Resources
Microsoft Office is available for students to download at a greatly reduced cost. For more information, please visit: http://www.creighton.edu/doit/software/personal.

Wireless Networking:
Creighton University is listed as one of the top 50 wireless universities in the country by Intel Corporation. Wireless is generally available in public spaces throughout campus, most residence halls and many classrooms. Notebook computers must have an 802.11 a/g/n wireless card to access the wireless network. We continue to improve our wireless coverage, so visit the DoIT website at: http://www.creighton.edu/doit for additional information. We will provide instructions enabling connection to Creighton’s wireless network. If you are unable to connect and meet the (above) required minimum criteria, contact our Service Desk to set up an appointment to resolve any connectivity issues. If it is a hardware-related problem, the owner is responsible for all repairs to his/her computer.

CU Alert:
CU Alert is a campus-wide emergency notification system which provides safety-related announcements about University schedules, e.g. “The University will be closing early due to inclement weather.” Registering for CU Alert is strongly recommended in order to receive emergency phone, voice or text notifications. Register at: http://www.creighton.edu/cualert.

Computer Service and Repair
It is recommended that students purchase extended warranty service or Apple Care (if available) with all computer purchases. The first place a student should check for any technical question is our self-service portal at: http://servicedesk.creighton.edu where many common questions and solutions can be found.

Please note that DoIT is unable to provide virus or malware cleaning and repair services on personal property. Students are responsible for keeping their machines clean of infections and may need to restore their computer using vendor specific tools and support avenues or visit a service center.

At this time the University does not recommend one service vendor over another, but does advise students that vendors such as DIT at 2201 North 90th street, phone: 402-393-0828, or ARN Networks at 5111 Leavenworth street, phone: 402-932-7733 are available.
The Reinert-Alumni Library, located in the heart of campus, is proud to serve all undergraduate students in Arts & Sciences and Business. We offer a wide variety of services and resources to help you succeed in college!

Besides 400 thousand books and journals on the library shelves, we offer thousands more e-books, e-journals, and information databases through our website. We now provide streaming videos as well. These electronic library resources cover all fields of study and are available 24/7 from your residence hall, or anywhere you have access to the web.

Library facilities include computer stations, laptops, photocopiers, printing, scanning, media equipment, a typewriter, fax machine, and lockers. We also provide a variety of spaces for individual and collaborative study, including small group study rooms and a presentation practice room. Sofas and lounge chairs are also plentiful.

Spinning your wheels on Google? Wondering what constitutes a “scholarly” article? Don’t know how to cite something? Help is available from a team of Reference Librarians on a walk-in basis and via phone, email, IM, and text messaging. The popular Research Assistance Program (RAP) is also available for one-on-one consultation by appointment, for anyone who requests it.

And finally, we understand that sometimes you just need a break. In addition to academic sources, the Library also provides recreational materials. We have a variety of movies on DVD, music CDs, audiobooks, and books for leisure reading. Come pay us a visit!

To Report a Crime

A crime can be reported by contacting Public Safety at extension 2911 (emergencies) or extension 2104 (non-emergencies). Many campus phones have decals affixed with the Public Safety phone numbers already on them. The Public Safety phone numbers are also listed in all campus directories, and the emergency phones on campus use an autodialer to reach the Public Safety office. Campus Emergency Procedure Notices with appropriate phone numbers and emergency instructions have been distributed throughout the University and are available upon request.

Victims are encouraged to report all incidents to Public Safety regardless of how insignificant the crime might be. Officers respond quickly any time of the day or night to meet the victim, take a report, investigate the incident and provide assistance. The municipal police will typically be contacted for crimes of a more serious nature. A significant network of University and external support services is available to all victims.

Crime Prevention

Public Safety maintains that the more effective strategy is to prevent rather than solve crimes. To that end, the department devotes a significant portion of its resources to crime prevention:

• Officers patrol the campus on foot, on bicycles and in vehicles 24 hours a day. Always on the alert for potential problems, officers provide a first line of defense with an intercept capability and a visible deterrence.

• A campus shuttle service provides students and University employees with safe and convenient transportation to most sites on campus up to 18 hours a day. Two buses, the east shuttle and the west shuttle, run concurrently to link all corners of the campus with most destinations in between. A third bus shuttles employees between Creighton University Medical Center and the 30th Street parking lot. Another shuttle provides services to commuters parking along the Burt Street Corridor. Shuttle bus drivers can provide extra “eyes and ears” while they are on their routes, reporting suspicious activity to Public Safety.

• A pedestrian escort service is available to all campus members upon request. Public Safety officers or student employees will accompany pedestrians to their residence halls, parked cars, or other campus destinations. Department personnel respond to escort requests any time someone is apprehensive about walking alone.

• Blue light emergency phones are located strategically throughout the campus, particularly in parking lots. They enable one to activate a single emergency button on the phone panel to be in instant contact with the Public Safety dispatcher. The dispatcher simultaneously receives a signal indicating the location of the caller.

• Given the relatively open environment that characterizes college campuses today, everyone must become involved in the security process. To support this, a full-time Crime Prevention Officer makes presentations and develops programs designed to inform campus members about the threat of crime and the prevention resources available to them. These efforts are intended to encourage students and employees to think and act in terms of crime prevention and assume a considerable degree of responsibility for personal safety and the security of property.

• These educational efforts include new student and employee orientation programs, crime prevention presentations and training, RAD Training, bike security programs, along with pamphlets, brochures, posters or other support materials. Programs and presentations are scheduled annually, and are also available upon request.
• Student Services’ Peer Education at Creighton is a resource center for students. Peer Education provides information and training on dating, relationships, alcohol, drugs, and cultural diversity. Peer educators meet with freshmen, fraternities and sororities, student athletes, and participate in campus health fairs. Presentations are scheduled upon request.

• Electronic card access systems are employed in a number of buildings on campus: the Administration, Humanities, Communication Arts and Lied Center Buildings, the Law School, Eppley, Rigge, Hixson-Lied, Alumni Library, Boyne Building, Criss II and III, the Cardiac Center, Harper Center, The Old Gym, the Ryan Athletic Center, and the Center for Health Policy and Ethics. Kenefick, Heider, McGloin, Davis Square, Opus Square, Deglman, Swanson, Kiewit and Gallagher Residence Halls and the 20th and 24th Street parking garages also utilize card access. These electronic access systems afford an extra measure of security in their flexibility and control.

• Maintenance and security of campus facilities are top priorities. The Maintenance staff attends to University buildings and grounds with a concern for safety and security. Shrubbery, trees and other vegetation on campus are trimmed on a routine basis. Upon the discovery of irregular conditions such as broken windows, faulty locks, burned out lights or other hazards, Public Safety officers, Student Services staff or any other members of the University may notify the Maintenance Department. The staff responds promptly to make repairs affecting safety and security.

• A number of closed-circuit television surveillance cameras have been installed at selected sites on campus to record activity in these areas and serve as visible deterrents to crime.

• CU Alert is the University’s multi-modal emergency notification system which allows Public Safety to contact faculty, staff and students with time-sensitive information during a crisis or emergency situation using voice, email and text messaging. More detailed information is available, and you may enroll in the system, at creighton.edu/cualert. Crime Alerts are made to the campus community when serious crimes occur that are considered to pose a continuous threat to the welfare of the student or employee population. When conditions warrant, information may be disseminated through flyers, bulletin board postings, personal notification, announcements in the “Creighton Today”, or campus-wide email. Information that would warrant a timely warning to the community can be reported to Public Safety officers, supervisors, or the director at x2104, 24 hours a day.

Parking Information

• All vehicles parked on Creighton University property are required to display a valid parking permit. A valid parking permit consists of BOTH a hand tag AND a validation sticker. Permits may be obtained from 7am to 7pm, Monday through Friday at 2204 Burt Street.

• Due to parking and space limitations, the purchase of a parking permit only allows you to search for and occupy a parking space as space is available. It does not guarantee the availability of a space. Your permit will only be honored in a student lot during normal business hours. View the campus map for eligible parking areas.

• Students may park in faculty/staff lots from 4pm to 6am Monday through Friday and any time on weekends. Students are not allowed to park in faculty/staff lots during breaks or student holidays.

• If you have questions regarding parking or need assistance, call Public Safety at 280-2104. We are open 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

TIPS TO KEEP YOURSELF SAFE

DATING
When meeting new people, do not give out your home phone number. Instead, ask for their number or use your work number.

With someone new, double date or meet at a familiar, public place. Tell someone your plans-including where you’ll be.

Say your goodbyes at the car rather than at the front door. It’s okay not to feel pressured to invite your date inside. Indicate that someone is waiting for you inside.

Trust your instincts… Uneasy, uncomfortable, get out! Don’t be embarrassed to make a scene, YOU know what is best for you.

DATING VIOLENCE:
EIGHT EARLY WARNING SIGNS
- Extreme Jealousy
- Isolates You
- Possessiveness
- Gender Role Stereotypes
- Low Self-esteem
- Unpredictable Mood Swings
- Alcohol/Drug Use Explosive Anger

DATE RAPE
When a woman says “No!” it means no. Rape is a vicious crime in any form, which is why we must strive not to label it.

VEHICLES
Have your keys in hand and ready to unlock the vehicle. Look around the vehicle as you approach it. Unlock the door, check the back seat and floor area. Lock the doors before starting the car or fastening your seatbelt. When you leave your vehicle at a service station, leave only the car keys. Don’t leave your house key or other keys on the key ring.

Back into a well-lit parking space. Avoid parking next to vans. Walk with the flow of traffic and stay in the center of the access way when walking in parking lots. This will give you more reaction time.

CAR TROUBLE SAFETY
- Turn on hazard lights or flashers
- Put the hood up to alert police and passersby that you need assistance.
- Stay with your vehicle and wait for police or a service station.
- Place help signs in rear window, but do not completely block vision.
- Carry cell phone for emergencies.
- Be wary of vehicles following you. Do not drive home/campus. Drive to Public Safety or the nearest police or fire station.
- Stay in familiar, populated areas. If there are no other options, find a 24-hour shopping store.

AWAY FROM HOME
Leaving valuables out in the open in your room or your vehicle invites a thief to take them. Remember to keep valuables locked up or out of sight.

Allowing someone access to a building that you do not recognize is a safety risk. Do not prop open self-locking doors, including all residence halls.

If you are going to walk or jog alone, avoid isolated areas. If you must pass through an isolated area, walk with a purpose, keep your head up and be ALERT!

Use traveler’s checks and open a bank account. Creighton has a credit union available in the Student Center. Do not keep large amounts of cash with you.

Always keep your checkbook with you. Be sure to secure your box of unused checks. If checks or credit cards are stolen, file a report with Public Safety, and contact the Omaha Police. Also call any credit card companies and your bank immediately.

LOCK YOUR DOOR whenever you leave your room, regardless of the length of time you’ll be gone.

When you are off-campus, downtown, or at a party keep in touch with friends and always call a designated driver or taxi when you are too intoxicated to drive.

Always use the five-second rule: If you take your eyes off your drink for 5 seconds, leave it and get another.

"Make sure to take some personal time to think and reflect. Whether it’s lying out under the sun, taking a walk to explore campus, sitting in the church, or climbing a tree... Make sure that you leave yourself some “me” time."

Scott Quinn

"Get close to people on your floor. They might become your best friends for the rest of your life. And you will always have someone to eat meals with. Also get to know people in your classes. Study groups help when it comes to the test."

Kara Kuncl

"If you do what you are passionate about and be who you are, you don’t have to worry, the rest will take care of itself."

Chris Williams

"College is all about new experiences. You may not get another chance to have the opportunities that are offered to you in college, so take advantage of the unexpected."

Katherine Regier

"Don’t be afraid to be yourself. When you put yourself out there, people will see the sunshine you have within."

Katie Little

"Think of college as a learning experience. Not only are you learning things in your classes, but you are also learning so much more about yourself and how to deal with others on a daily basis. Remember that from every situation, whether positive or negative, you can learn something new. Put things into perspective and don’t let little things get you down. Remember to have fun in your journey along the way!"

Madeline Kramper

"Don’t be afraid to step out of your comfort zone. You’ll always learn something from the experience and make tons of friends along the way."

Angela Brichacek

“Do not be afraid to be yourself. The more you give of yourself, the more you get in return. And in order to get the most out of your experience, you need to be true to who you are.”

Krista Zuroske

“Be yourself. As simple as it sounds, when thrown into a whole new lifestyle sometimes it is easy to forget who you were before. Try to bring that older version of you into this new environment and make it your own.”
