Student Activities Intern

The Creighton University Student Activities Office is searching for a team member who is committed to the Catholic, Jesuit mission of educating the whole person. . . mind, body, and spirit. We are looking for an intern who will share his/her gifts to impact the development of students involved in student activities. This person will serve as a living example of our mission, which states:

As educators, the Student Activities staff shares our gifts and talents to foster student growth and development. We intentionally create learning opportunities that teach and challenge students to develop, understand, and reflect upon their values, leadership skills and goals. We expect that students and staff will:

- Seek excellence from themselves and others;
- Seek and model balanced integration of academic, social, recreational, and spiritual involvement;
- Respect and celebrate the commonalities and uniqueness of all;
- Impact social change through education, reflection and service that is for and with others;
- Share their gifts with our communities for the greater glory of God.

This position will reflect the office mission through the following possible responsibilities:

Fraternity/Sorority Affairs
- Promote the Greek Community through marketing efforts, including website and family resource guide development
- Create an Academic Resource Guide for chapter leaders

New Student Orientation
- Collaborate with Summer Preview student leaders to execute sessions throughout the month of July

Student Organizations
- Develop a Campus Moderator Resource Guide that will be distributed to student organizations’ advisors

Summer Programming
- Assist with summer programming efforts both on and off campus

Additional information:

The Intern will be able to identify areas in which they wish to focus their efforts within the above Student Activities areas.

Residence Life Intern

There are several opportunities for project development, which will be mutually-agreed upon by the MUF Intern and Supervisor based upon interest, experience, and willingness to explore issues that best serve the Department of Residence Life while fulfilling the needs outlined in the MUFP. Project areas that will be discussed include:

- Working with the recently redesigned Lieben Center for Women to help promote the Center's activities and plan for the Fall 2006 semester. This may include website design, development of a sexual assault and sexual harassment program for RA training, planning for Stop Intimate Violence Week, researching available grant opportunities for the Center, and researching scholarship and award opportunities for women students.
- Research and help identify a sustainable program format for developing a culturally-based leadership development residential learning community. This may include researching the National Coalition Building Institute, programs offered through NCCJ, and other established programs to serve as a model for culturally-based leadership at Creighton.
- Assist in the development of multicultural training activities and experiences for Resident Advisor and professional staff Fall and Winter training.
- Develop a programming database of active, passive, educational, and social programs for use by Resident Advisors throughout the 2006-07 year. Aid in the development of programs directed toward Freshmen, Sophomore, and Upper-Class residential students.
- Develop sessions for aiding in multicultural freshmen and transfer students’ transition to Creighton and Omaha.
- Explore alcohol-alternative programming efforts for all campus students.
- Participate in weekly departmental meetings.
- Meet weekly with supervisor.
- The supervisor will establish ‘meetings-over-meals’ for the NUFP Intern to explore student affairs, higher education preparation programs, residential life, and diversity topics with the department Director, Associate Director, and other professional and graduate-level staff members.

Additional information:

The Intern will be able to identify areas in which they wish to focus their efforts within the above Residence Life areas.

For questions, please contact MacGarret Becker, Resident Director, at mdbecker@creighton.edu or at 402-280-3399.
Center for Student Integrity Intern

One of the new and exciting Offices at Creighton University is the Center for Student Integrity. The Center for Student Integrity (formerly Office of Judicial Affairs) mission is to promote an environment where students are encouraged to act with professional, academic, and personal integrity and to hold students accountable around issues of integrity. A framework grounded in our Jesuit tradition which strives to create a human community influenced by the laws of justice and love.

Toward this end the Center for Student Integrity has two focal areas: Civic Responsibility and Judicial Education programs. The Civic Responsibility programs seek to help students investigate and clarify issues of Integrity as they relate to their personal lives and their role in a communal conceptualization. The Judicial Education program resolves allegations of misconduct under the Code of Student Conduct, doing so from a civic responsibility and educational framework.

This position will reflect the office mission through the following possible responsibilities

- Receive an in-depth overview of the field of Judicial Affairs, and Student Integrity at Creighton
- Opportunities to develop an Ethics Course that would be taught by students and Administrators
- Develop Alcohol Education Programs, teaching students about the effects on drugs and alcohol.
- Work collaboratively with various campus offices to plan a “Know the Code” Week.
- Work closely with the Assistant Director to develop more innovative and creative sanctions.
- Visit surrounding institutions to compare & contrast the various judicial systems and practices.
- Learn about and develop and assessment program for the Center for Student Integrity Programs, such as our Diversity Reader Series, Integrity Awards, Alcohol Education Program, and Various Speaker Series.

The Center for Student Integrity Intern will experience the following:

- Weekly Breakfast Student Development Learning Series (6 sessions)
- An introduction to Student Services at Creighton
- Student Affairs at Creighton: Structure & Strategic Planning
- The role of Diversity at Creighton and in Higher Education
- Becoming a Professional in Student Affairs and researching Graduate Preparation Programs
- Construction & Finances
- Final Project and Presentation, including designing a MUFP infrastructure for Creighton and presenting a summary of what students have learned over the past 8 weeks

Additional information:

The Intern will be able to identify areas in which they wish to focus their efforts within the above Student Activities areas.

For questions, please contact Darrell Goodwin, Assistant Director of Student Integrity, at goodwin@creighton.edu or at 402-280-2718.
