

Department of Residence Life

Sweatshop-Free and Union-Made Vendors

This listing is provided to students, staff, faculty, and associates of Creighton University who may be interested in learning more about sweatshop-free labor and worker's rights. As part of a Jesuit, Catholic institution, the Department of Residence Life takes seriously its obligation to be a leader in promoting justice, equity, and rights through purchasing from reputable companies that invest in worker's welfare.

Beginning Summer 2005, all apparel purchases made by the Department—including staff, hall, or event clothing—will be purchased through sweat-free vendors.

The information contained herein is a sampling of popular vendors and is not meant to be a complete listing. If you conduct business with a company not listed, please inform us and we will add it to the list.
