AD ASTRA & ARETE
Code of Conduct

The Office of Summer Sessions at Creighton University is pleased your child has chosen to join us this summer. In order to provide a quality pre-college experience for your child, please discuss the following list of rules and consequences with them. Our code of conduct was created to ensure the most enjoyable and SAFE environment possible for our camp youth. A signed copy of this form must be turned in at registration before residence hall keys and class materials can be distributed.

The camp Program Directors and Resident Advisors (RAs) will be your child’s adult supervision for the week, on and off campus. All participants are expected to follow the rules and requests made of them by all camp personnel under the penalty of dismissal. Cooperation with Instructors, Program Directors, and RAs will be expected from all students for the duration of camp.

Please review the following:

1. Illegal Activity: Absolutely no alcohol, smoking, or illegal drugs are permitted.
   Consequence: Immediate dismissal from the program.

2. Promiscuous Behavior: Members of the opposite sex are not permitted in residence hall rooms, regardless of whether the door is open or closed.
   Consequence: The Program Director and a phone call to parents/guardians will decide if dismissal from the program is warranted.

3. Defacement or Theft of University or personal property of others.
   Consequence: Immediate dismissal from the program.

4. Physical or verbal abuse to any University employee or camp participant.
   Consequence: The Program Director and a phone call to parents/guardians will decide if dismissal from the program is warranted.

5. Truancy: Leaving the University unsupervised or being absent from any class or camp function without written permission. This also includes failing to be in assigned rooms at curfew and attempting to leave assigned rooms after lights-out.
   Consequence: Immediate dismissal from the program.

6. Classroom Disturbances: Students are expected to bring materials to class daily and follow all directions given to them by their instructors. Students are also expected to stay respectfully quiet during lectures and be reminded that the college classroom experience is the reason they are attending the University.
   Consequence: Instructors will call the Program Director to remove the offending student from class. The Program Director will then notify parents of the situation and the student may be remanded to the dormitory for the remainder of the class period. If the behavior occurs again, whether in the same class or a not, the offending student will be immediately dismissed from the program.
7. Disrespectful Behavior: Students are expected to treat all persons (other campers, camp staff, and staff members of any business visited) with respect and demonstrate an appreciation of diversity. Violent, abusive, or harassing behaviors will not be tolerated. Consequence: Phone call home to parents and the Program Director will decide if dismissal from the program is appropriate.

8. Electronic Devices/Cellular Phones: Students are expected to have all cell phones turned off during their classes and to leave ALL other electronic devices locked in the dorm rooms during the school day. This includes, headphones/earphones, iPods/mp3 players, CD players, radios, and video games. Consequence: If a student’s use of a cell phone or electronic device interrupts a class, then it will count as a classroom disturbance and the Program Director will follow the consequences for Classroom Disturbances (see Rule #6).

9. On-Campus Computer Use: All students using computers in a class, their dorm, the library or the Student Center are bound by Creighton University’s regulations for computer use. No inappropriate material or content may be downloaded or screened during your time on campus. If you are taking a computer class, please DO NOT TOUCH THE COMPUTER OR USE ANY PROGRAMS UNLESS INSTRUCTED BY THE INSTRUCTOR. Consequence: Phone call home to parents and the Program Director will decide if dismissal from the program is appropriate.

I agree to abide by the Code of Conduct outlined above,
