

CREIGHTON STUDENTS “AHEAD OF THEIR TIME”

- A BOOK READING BY THE AUTHOR MATT HOLLAND -

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 3RD

FEAST DAY OF ST. MARTIN DE PORRES, PATRON SAINT OF PEOPLE OF MIXED RACE, AFTER WHOM THE CLUB WAS NAMED

SKUTT ROOM 104

REFRESHMENTS PROVIDED BY CSU

3:30 P.M.

SPONSORED BY:

CSU, JUSTICE & PEACE
STUDIES, PHILOSOPHY
DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF MULTICULTURAL AFFAIRS,
COLLABORATIVE MINISTRY
OFFICE, CREIGHTON
UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES,
IRHG, CCSJ, AND
THE JESUIT COMMUNITY

Ahead of Their Time tells the story of Creighton's DePorres Club, an interracial group that included the author's father, Denny Holland, and John Markoe, SJ, a Jesuit who fought to end segregation in Omaha early in the Civil Rights Movement of the 40s and '50s. We are honored at this event to welcome two Creighton graduates and members of the DePorres Club, Virginia Walsh and Agnes Stark.