

The Buddy Bulletin

Buddy Profile: Jolie and Erin

"I can't believe it's been four years and Erin, my Best Buddy still loves me! Erin Steinblock and I have been friends for four years now but each time we see each other it's like we're meeting for the first time, there is always some sense of excitement in the air. Erin loves to talk on the phone and share how her day is and she loves to listen to music. Often when we talk there will be music in the background and I'll do my best to guess what song is playing and who the artist is. She also loves to talk about her family and how they're doing and feels comfortable enough with me to share when she's having a good day or a bad day. She also loves to work out with her mom and is doing her very best to live a healthy lifestyle.

Like Erin I love listening to music and dancing whenever I get the chance. I'm from the island of Maui, Hawaii and I've been dancing hula since I was 5 1/2 which makes 16 years this January. I am 1 of 5 with three of my siblings living in the continental United States and the eldest living in Hawaii. Like Erin I'm also an aunt to my nephew Damien and my three nieces Angelique, Evalise, and Chasity. I am an Exercise Science major and getting my minor in Sociology, I hope to enter Creighton's Physical Therapy School following graduation in the fall of 2009.

Erin and I have such a wonderful, relaxed and easy going friendship that I often forget that we met through Best Buddies. When you build a relationship with someone and you share four years of your life together it's easy to forget where you started which is why I am so thankful to Best Buddies for giving me the opportunity to meet an amazing individual and bless me with her friendship." January Group Event: BOWLING!

Strike, Spare, or Gutterball: No matter how you play the game, you are sure to have a great time bowling with a bunch of friends. For the January Group Event, the Creighton University Best Buddies took a trip to Kelley's Bowling to hang out in the lanes. As everyone picked out shoes and balls, they became reacquainted after the long Winter Break. The rest of the day was filled with laughter, high fives, dancing, and of course, lots of bowling. The fun had that day is only further proof that friendship is always in style, even when you are wearing ugly bowling shoes.

If you have pictures from group events or one-on-one activities, email them to Carrie at carrie-bonsutto@creighton.edu and you might see them in the next issue of the Buddy Bulletin!
