Celebrating the Eucharist and Preaching in the Time of Pope Francis

October 7th at 4:00 PM in Saint John’s Catholic Church

This fall, come hear about the Catholic tradition from Rev. Richard Fragomeni, STB, PhD. Fr. Richard Fragomeni is an internationally renowned scholar, author, priest, and researcher. Interpreting poetry and theology, his work delves into the intersection of symbolic activity and language as it creates insight into the proclamation of grace.

The Heaney Lecture in Pastoral Liturgy is free and open to the public. The event is sponsored by St. John’s Parish, the Creighton College of Arts and Sciences, and the Barbara Reardon Heaney Endowed Chair in Pastoral Liturgy.

October 8th at 9:00 am in lower St. Johns Coming to Mercy and Beyond, Eucharist, Celebrating, Life.

We are offering an excellent opportunity to retool, reflect, and celebrate our ministries with a morning of reflection for all our liturgical ministers. Fr. Richard Fragomeni a professor of liturgy at the Catholic Theological Union of Chicago will present a morning reflection and retooling for our many ministries.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER
Fr. Fragomeni is a presbyter of the Diocese of Albany, New York, and a professor of liturgy and preaching at the Catholic Theological Union. His teaching and research interests run to Roman Catholic theology, interpretation theory and poetry.

Fr. Fragomeni is also the author of Come to the Feast, In Shining Splendor: Fifty Eastertime Meditations, and The Eucharist: 50 Questions from the Pews. He is co-author, with Br. Michael McGrath, OCFS, of both Blessed Art Thou Mother, Lady, Mystic, Queen, and The Name of Jesus: The Way, The Truth, and The Light.

In addition to his teaching, writing and research, Fr. Fragomeni is also a preacher of parish missions and has presented nationally and internationally on liturgical, sacramental and catechetical topics.
