ALI MAUSE

For me, the most life-giving experiences thus far with Campus Ministry have been the Encounter Retreats. In Fall 2015, I attended Encounter #31 where the small group time was particularly impactful for me. It was humbling to be utterly and completely vulnerable with a group of Creighton peers. JASON BROWN

Though I have only participated in two retreats in my four years at Creighton with Campus Ministry, in these two retreats, I have been challenged in ways that have forced me to step outside of my understandings of who God is. Over the years, the Jesuit values have been continue reading...

MAHEK SHAHID

I was able to attend Parliament of the World Religions which has been one of the best decisions of my life. Leaving the conference, I was filled with an abundance of hope and motivation to bring interfaith community awareness not only to Creighton, but to every aspect in my life. continue reading...

BRIAN BOERNER

One of the most impactful interactions I've had through campus ministry happened during a VIA hike at Hitchcock Nature Center. I was leading a small group and I asked my group members how they saw the divine in nature. One of the group members replied by saying that she saw God in the wind. continue reading...

Companions Dinners; So Much More than Just a Great Meal!

Our Companions Dinner program is about gathering together, sharing a meal and engaging with others over topics on faith.

How does it work? A Campus Ministry student leader cooks a homemade meal of your choice and then brings it to your community of friends. All you have to do is invite friends over to a location of your choice and pick out which meal you would like and what topic you would like to discuss. Our Campus Ministry leaders will then facilitate a meaningful reflection and discussion for the group.

All of this is provided to students at no cost!

Friend groups, student organizations, athletic teams, groups of any type our welcome to host a Companions Dinner.

If you would like more information on this program, please contact the Companions Dinner program coordinator by email at BethSamson@creighton.edu or 402-280-3073.

Interfaith Prayer Service

Our annual Interfaith Prayer Service is a one of a kind prayer service. Every year, students from various faith traditions begin meeting in the fall semester to plan out this meaningful event. The event is typically held early in the spring semester.

Every year, the theme is developed by the student team and focuses on what unites us. The theme for 2018 is Belonging Together.

All Creighton students, staff and faculty are then encouraged to attend and participate in this unique blend of prayers and song.

This year's event will take place on this Wednesday, Feb. 7, at 3:30 p.m. at St. John's Church. A light reception will immediately follow the service.
