Thank you for considering the Creighton University Retreat Center for your possible 8-Day Retreat; we offer 8 & 30-Day Silent Ignatian Retreats year-round in hopes of meeting individual schedules. Refer to our description of an 8-Day retreat and how it might look/feel at the Creighton Retreat Center. Retreatants should have attended a 3 or 4-day silent retreat in advance to be best prepared for the 8-Day experience. These shorter or introductory retreats can be scheduled with us as well.

You can make a reservation for a private, individual directed, silent retreat with Dir. Amy Hoover or possibly Fr. Bob Dufford, SJ. You are welcome to pose your own dates and we would check with their schedules in advance of confirming the reservation.

A few more details that may be helpful to know; generally guests on private retreats stay in efficiency apartments and prepare their own meals. The apartment has a combined living/dining area, bedroom area and private bathroom. The apartment offers a kitchenette; including a refrigerator with freezer, microwave, coffee maker (& filters), toaster, electric skillet and sink. There are miscellaneous glasses/cups, dishes/bowls & silverware; however, no food, so plan for simple meals including the salt/pepper. Dish soap/dish towels, bedding & bath towels are provided too. It is a private unit that is just steps away from the woods where the deer and wild turkey roam.

The rate for the 8-Day Silent Retreat is $600 and includes room and suggested stipend. If you would like to confirm a reservation we do ask for a non-refundable deposit of $50 at the time of confirmation, which is later applied toward the final invoice.
