Hello! We are excited and honored to welcome you to the Creighton community. On behalf of the rest of the Summer Preview staff, we would like to help you “Spread Your Wings” here at Creighton University.

You are going to have so many opportunities over the next four years, and we hope that the Summer Preview experience will help you become engaged in all that Creighton University has to offer. We also hope that you start taking the necessary steps towards becoming involved and integrated into the Creighton community.

Family members, learn about all the exciting opportunities your student has before them. Ask questions, attend programs, and, of course, have fun. The students in the bright blue shirts and navy polos - our fellow Summer Preview guides and executives – are here for you. Ask what they are involved in, ask what helpful tips they have, ask them anything that is on your mind – they truly are the experts.

We hope you enjoy your preview of Creighton. If there is anything we can do to make your visit more accommodating, please let us know.

Welcome to the family!

Yours,

Murphy Dowd and Nicholas Franz
Summer Preview Coordinators
