Envisioning Our Future: Innovation Council Initiative Proposal

Innovation Council Name: Transitioning Seniors/Life after Undergrad

Council’s charge: Create an intentional and comprehensive transition from the Creighton undergraduate experience to life after college.

Membership:
- Ricardo Ariza, Office of Multicultural Affairs
- Marian Brown, Student Health and Counseling Services
- Katie Kelsey, Student Leadership and Involvement Center
- Miranda Meadows, Student Health and Counseling Services
- Kristen Roppolo, Department of Residence Life

Innovation Initiative Title: Senior Year Passport

Identified Innovation Opportunity: To assist in creating a well-rounded (holistic) senior year experience to prepare students for graduation and life after.

Brief Description of Innovation Initiative: To develop a digital check list focused on seven areas to assist seniors in making the most of the senior year experience and preparing for life post-graduation.

Objectives and/or Learning Outcomes:
- Develop an on-line tool to aid students in graduation prep
- Create resources for seniors that will help them navigate life after graduation (give them life education)
- Partner with campus colleagues to create a one stop shop for the senior transition
- Encourage life-long learning

Who/what is better served by this Innovation Initiative:
- Senior students
- Campus partners – by partnering together and creating a tool, we
  - Bringing together everyone for a holistic education/experience for students

Who are key partners/collaborators?
- Division of Student Life (Departments within DSL)
- Student Experience Committee – this is potentially something that the committee builds and runs
- Registrar
- Deans’ Offices
- Career Services/The Edge
- Alumni Office
- University Relations
- Campus Ministry